Hr. Grace Notes.

Rev. L. G. Mercer, of Bay Roberts, occupied the pulpit of St. Andrew's Kirk here at both services yesterday. The organist on the occasion was Master Bert Munn, the 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dugald Munn. He is to be complimented on his bravery and on the excellent way he handled the organ.

The s.s. Beatrice, having discharged her coal cargo to the Harbour Grace Coal Co., left this a.m. for Bell Island, where she will load from there for Sydney.

Miss Greta James, of St. John's, who is here visiting her uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. J. Brunies, attended the Presbyterian Sabbath School yesterday afternoon and recited a beautiful piece for the children entitled "Old Ben's Guest," in excellent style. Mr. R. M. Duff favored the children with some sad selections on his splendid gramophone. The visitors, teachers and children all enjoyed the afternoon, and passed a unanimous vote of thanks to their kind friends.

The s.s. Kyle arrived here from Labrador ports yesterday morning. Among her passengers were Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Clarkson, Miss Trappnell and Mr. Howard Trappnell. Miss Trappnell went on to St. John's by the Kyle en route to her home in Montreal. Mr. Trappnell left for his station at Heart's Content last evening.

Master Fred Munn, the 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Munn, who is now with his parents at Shoal Bay Islands, Labrador, in writing to a friend here says: "I have a pair of long boots and a suit of oil clothes and I go out to the traps in the middle haul. We have some fish as big as myself and Muriel (his little sister, 6 years). We are having a great time."

A gentleman of this town who has lately been visiting the supposed hiding place of pirate treasures in this neighborhood, has unearthed some old, no doubt, valuable coins. One dated 1707 is the color of brass, we dare not say gold as we are afraid to build his hopes too high, and another dated 1737, besides several others of a more recent date, but still very old. Any person anxious to hear more about them may communicate with us.

Short of Coal.

The s.s. St. George was towed into port yesterday afternoon by the tug Black Cock. The s.s. Kyle, which went to give assistance and which was standing by the ship for several hours, also came along. The St. George was sixteen days out from Liverpool for Halifax and met heavy weather. She was built seven years ago for the Fishguard and Rosslane Railways and Harbors Co. and plied in the Irish Channel service until recently, when she was bought by the C. P. R. to be used for the Great Lakes trade. The ship has turbine engines and accommodation for 1,000 passengers. The Reid Nfld. Co. are agents for the St. George, which is now getting bunker coal at the dock pier.

Old Medallist.

Mrs. Bartlett, the daughter of Mr. James Stott, has met with much success at the Middlesex Hospital, London. She entered that institution in October, 1910, for a three years' training as a nurse; and has done exceptionally well at her periodical examination. This morning her father received a cable stating that she had passed her final examinations and led her class and had won the Gold Medal. We congratulate Mrs. Bartlett and her father on his daughter Marion's great success.

Bridges, Give Us Bridges.

Time and again the Telegram has sounded the Government in the question of bridges. We find this morning that our contemporary the Daily News, is also giving them a little "dig" in the neck. "Get the Bridges in Position." Well done, friend News, give it to 'em. They'll get so much over bridges, etc. from us that they will be pretty well tired by November. Thanks, however, for your assistance.

BASEBALL POSTPONED.—It is likely the B.F.S. and Shamrocks will likely compete Thursday next, but likely there will be an exhibition given out at the Garden Party. There will be teams representative of the town and other centres and likely an interesting match will occur. Messrs. McManus and Dench will be the umpires.

Republiates Offensive Literature.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir:—This afternoon I was brought to our knowledge that Mr. B. J. Short, a resident of Boston, who opened a store on Water Street a day or two ago, was offering for sale and selling certain books and pictures of an offensive character. We immediately called on Mr. Short, pointed out to him the objectionable character of the publications and protested against the sale of the same, whereupon he withdrew them from publication and undertook to remove them entirely from his premises.

Mr. Short explained that the book which professed to be a collection of Orange Songs, had been printed by him in Boston, the publication not being in any way connected with the Orange Association of the United States of America, or of Canada or of Newfoundland, but published purely as a private undertaking on his own responsibility and at his own expense. Mr. Short is not a member or in any way connected with the Loyal Orange Association of British North America, of which the Newfoundland Grand Lodge is a branch. His visit to St. John's was a private business venture, with which neither the Grand Lodge of U. S. A., Grand Lodge of British North America, nor the Provincial Grand Lodge of Newfoundland were in any way connected or of which they had any knowledge. No Orange song book of any nature or kind, and no picture similar to the one referred to are published by or with the consent or authority of the Orange Association of British North America or Newfoundland, and such could not be so published, because it is contrary to the principles, obligations, ritual and objects of the Association to publish and circulate or be in any way a party to the publication and circulation of any such offensive literature and pictures. The principles and objects of the Association are fully set forth in the General Declaration contained in pages 2 to 5 of the Constitution of the Loyal Orange Association, wherein on page 4 the following is laid down as an indispensable qualification for membership:—

"Disclaiming an intolerant spirit, the Association demands as an indispensable qualification, without which the greatest and wealthiest may seek admission in vain, that the candidate shall be deemed incapable of persecuting or injuring anyone on account of his religious opinions; the duty of every Orangeman being to aid and defend all loyal subjects of every religious persuasion in the enjoyment of their constitutional rights."

Yours truly,
R. A. SQUIRES,
Provincial Grand Master for Nfld.
JORDAN MILLEY,
Provincial Grand Secretary.

Speeding to Death Bed

Of Daughter Who Had Died in a Boston Hotel, Wealthy Man's Car Runs Over and Kills a Boy.

Boston, July 21.—Speeding in a high powered automobile toward a Boston Hotel, where his daughter, Miss E. F. Beebe, had just died under mysterious circumstances, J. Arthur Beebe, a wealthy business man, was halted in a tragic way to-night, when his car ran over and fatally injured a boy in Chelsea.

After taking the boy, Harry Somblowsky, ten years old, to the Naval Hospital, where he died, the anguished father was forced to wait until his chauffeur was arrested, charged with killing the lad. After giving a bond for the chauffeur he was able finally to resume his run to this city.

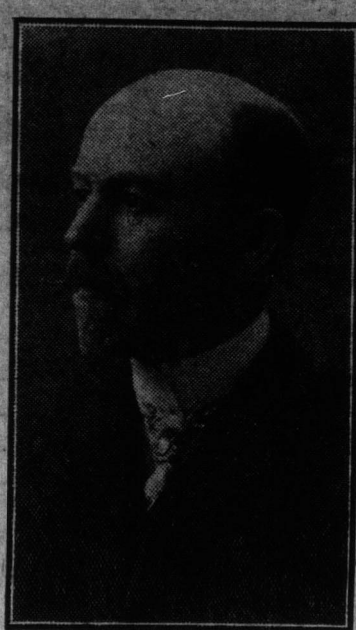

When he arrived at the hotel, Mr. Beebe learned that his daughter registered there this morning, was taken ill this afternoon and sent for a physician, saying that she was suffering from poison. The doctor had difficulty in entering the room, and when he was able to open the door he found the young woman dead. The cause of death, according to an informal statement by the physician, was heart failure. Miss Beebe had been suffering from a nervous trouble for three years. She had been living recently at the family's summer home in Manchester, Mass. She was 25 years old.

Medical Examiner Leary said Miss Beebe committed suicide by taking an alkaloid poison.

INVERMORE'S REPORT.—The Reid Nfld. Co. had the following wireless message last night from the Invermore via Indian Hr. and Pogo: "Wind west, fine and clear. Very little doing with fish from Battle Hr. to Grady. Left Cartwright at 9:30 a.m. to-day."

Grand Black Chapter Opens.

The Grand Black Chapter of British America, L. O. A., opened in the British Hall at 8 o'clock last evening. Grand Master Theo. Hay, of Toronto, in the chair; J. J. Trunk, of Vancouver, B.C., in the Deputy Chair; other officers in their places. After the usual opening ceremonies, the Grand Master appointed the Credential Committee who reported in attendance 82 regular qualified voters and 95 visitors.

The address of the Grand Master and the reports of the Grand Registrar and Grand Treasurer showed a marked increase in all branches of the Order. The membership showed a net growth of 1,406, and the finances were in an equally progressive condition.

Addresses of welcome were presented by the P. G. Black Chapter of Newfoundland, and also by the Private Preceptory working in the city. These addresses were heartily received by the Grand Chapter and referred to a special committee for consideration.

The Committee to draft the Standing Committees then presented their report, which was adopted. The Auditors' report was also received and referred to the usual Committee. An interesting item and one which was received with enthusiasm, was the reading of a communication from the Masonic Club extending to the visitors the privileges of the Club during their stay here, a courtesy that was most highly appreciated and cordially accepted. Some minor matters which claimed attention were dealt with, and at midnight adjournment was taken until 9:30 this morning. The Royal Black Chapter will continue in session all day, and will probably close on Wednesday forenoon, just previous to the opening of the Sovereign Grand Lodge Session, which takes place at 2:30 p.m. on that day.

WM. LEE,
Secretary of the Grand Lodge of B. A.

L.O.A. Parade.

The proposed programme outlined for to-morrow is a mammoth parade through the city from four to six o'clock. Brethren from the nearby outposts will take part in the parade as will also the C.I.B. Guards, Highlanders and S.A. Bands. His Excellency the Governor will be called on. To-morrow night there will be displays of fireworks while immense bonfires will illuminate the Southside Hills. On Thursday night in the College Hall a banquet will be held.

Pretty Decorations.

The Orange Hall, last night, was certainly worth seeing. A representative of the Telegram viewed it from many points, but he thought to look at it from Harvey Road about the residence of I. G. Sullivan was the very best vantage point. Every outline of the building was visible, was done in varied-colored lights and the Maple Leaf was a very distinctive feature. Just above this was the word "Welcome." On the east end were the words "Newfoundland L.O.A. Jubilee, 1868-1913," the whole looking very good. The Methodist College Hall was also beautifully decorated, as was also the British Hall.

STONE—HILLIARD.

A pretty wedding took place on Wednesday, July 23rd, at St. Thomas's Church, the Rev. G. R. Godden officiating, when Mr. Albert Stone, wheelwright at C. Lester's, led to the altar Miss Jennie Hilliard, of New Harbor, T.B. The bride was neatly gowned in white with hat to match the bridesmaids dressed also in white. After the ceremony supper was partaken of at the home of the groom's mother, 56 Flower Hill, and a very enjoyable time was spent. The happy couple were the recipients of a number of useful presents including a dinner set from Mr. C. Lester, china tea set from the mechanics of C. F. Lester; Mrs. Dr. Tait, china preserve dish; Miss E. Tait, china stand and egg cups; Baby Tait (Bri-gus), preserve dish; Mr. C. Placette, spoon stand and preserve dish; Mrs. Pierce, fruit dish; Miss Goss, preserve dish; Miss L. Spelgrove, photo frame; the groom's mother, half doz. silver spoons and table dollies; Miss Lily and Miss Irene Stone, silver baton holder and jewel box; Master Ralph Stone, trinket set, and many other useful presents. The groom's present to the bride was a handsome time piece, to the bridesmaids souvenir brooches and the bridesmaids the pins.

BAULD—HAWKINS.

There was held this morning at 9:30 in St. Andrew's Church, a quiet wedding when Duncan Stanley Bauld, son of H. G. Bauld, of Halifax, and city representative for Bould Bros., and Miss Lillian Hawkins, of St. John's, Nfld., were united in marriage by Rev. Robert Johnson. The bride was unattended and looked charming in a suit of grey, with hat to correspond, with Tangarine plume and carried a large bouquet of crysanthemums. Mr. Bauld is one of our best known young men, being Captain in the 66th Princess Louise Fusiliers and senior vice-president of the Wanderers' Amateur Athletic Club. As an athlete he is known all over Eastern Canada, being a footballer of first class calibre, having captained the Wanderers football and cricket teams and played on the football team that represented Canada a few years ago that toured England. In hockey circles he was equally well known, always playing as an amateur. The bridal couple left by the Bluenose for a two weeks' fishing trip at Kegonakooke Rod and Gun Club, Kegonakooke, Quebec Co., and on their return will occupy a flat in the Victoria apartments. The large number of presents received testified to the popularity of the couple and included a four piece silver set from the Executive and members of the Wanderers Club, of which for a number of years the groom has been a very active officer. The bride has been very popular during her stay in Halifax and will have the best wishes of a number of friends.—Ex.

[Lillian Hawkins is the daughter of William Hawkins, cooper, formerly of Hr. Grace, but for some years residing in St. John's.]

KENNY—BADCOCK.

A pretty wedding occurred at the R. C. Cathedral at 6:30 p.m. Sunday when Mr. James Kenny, the popular grocer of Cabot Street, led to the altar an equally popular young lady in the person of Miss Esther Badcock. The bride looked very pretty in a gown of cream serge, and was attended by her sister Miss Theresa Badcock, while Mr. David Dempsey was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Kenny are very popular people and after the wedding ceremony a reception was held at their home on Cabot Street. Bride and groom received many valuable presents. To both the Telegram extends cordial greetings and wishing them a long life of conjugal felicity.
