

Peculiar

To assist in many important particulars, Hood's Sarsaparilla is different from and superior to any other medicine.

Peculiar in combination, proportion and preparation of ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies of the vegetable kingdom. Hood's Sarsaparilla is its medicinal merit. Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown.

Peculiar in strength and economy—Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine of which can truly be said, "100 doses one dollar." Medicines in larger and smaller bottles require larger doses, and do not produce as good results as Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Peculiar in its "good name at home"—there is more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold in Lowell, where it is made, than of all other blood purifiers.

Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales abroad, no other preparation has ever attained such popularity in so short a time. Do not be deceived to take any other preparation. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla.

ing come to stay. Following the inclination to play, come the question where to play, and the enthusiastic sportsman realizing that the park may be sold have set themselves about to stem the tide of public opinion. They wish to hold the park for at least another season in order that among other difficulties the new organization will not be placed under the disadvantage of having to purchase and prepare suitable grounds.

Ald. Moule (acting mayor) thinks that as the school property is to be sold in the near future, it would not be wise to force upon an already depressed market such a large piece of land as that contained in the park. It was a paying scheme to have held the property when the old fair grounds were disposed of, and it would still be found advantageous to keep it until a change takes place in the real estate market. The baseball club had expended about $5,000 or $6,000 in fitting up the grounds, and if put under the hammer this work would result in nothing, or next to nothing.

At present the opposing parties appear to be of equal strength, but the claims of London's youth will no doubt at last be given consideration.
