by the officers themselves would be established. It was proposed also to establish a railway mail service with a controller having fifteen years' service, and a superintendent with ten years' experience. These officers would be selected from the present staff. A provision was also in the bill subjecting railway mail clerks to examination. A new class of officers, to be called stampers and sorters, will be created. At present first class clerks were engaged in this work. The work in Great Britain was done by stampers and sorters, as proposed here.

The House, in committee, resumed consideration of the tariff, taking up items Nos. 255 and 256, barbed wire and strip fencing, and galvanized wire for fencing. Nos. 9, 12 and 13, 15 per cent until Jan. 1, 1898, and thereafter free. A lively discussion ensued upon a statement by Mr. Paterson that it was never intended to go further and make all wire fencing free. This left the woven wire fencing at 25 per cent. Mr. Foster insinuated that the duty was retained on woven wire fencing because it was made in a factory re presented by a supporter.

Mr. McGregor said there was a fac-tory in Walkerville making a woven wire fence and using 1,000 tons of wire a year. There were other factories in London, Ingersoll, Toronto and other places; a large number of farmers had machines for weaving their own fences, with five or ten strands, as they wished. It was true a large number did not use barbed wire, but in Manitoba it was needed. The Govern-ment had made large strides towards giving the farmers free fencing.
Mr. Fielding believed the Governafter the 21st inst., and all stamp-vendors in the city will be supplied reasonable concessions to the farmers, and Mr. Paterson stated that 6.000

When the House resumed after reess the Conservative benches were empty, for the members of the party were holding a love feast down stairs honor of Sir Charles Tupper. Mr. Taylor and Mr. Henderson only Conservatives left in the House, and the former had a list of the items to be allowed to go through without debate. Practically, the whole of the dutiable list with the exception of the extiles, was rushed through at an amazing pace.

Mr. McMullen thought things were -sided, and crossed the floor the front Opposition bench, amid cheers. Soon, by the courtesy of his friends, he had a huge pile of blue books in front of him, and was ready to do business as a regular Opposition. The loyal Conservative Opposition smilingly refused to acknowledge his authority, but the chairman, now and again, to keep up the joke, waited until Mr. McMullen nodded before crying carried. The free list was rushed through till salt was reached, when Messrs. McMullen, Cameron, McGregor and Dr. Macdonald, from the Ontario salt district, asked for more stringent regulations to prevent the free impor-tation of salt for general use under cover of the declaration that it is for

By 10:30 o'clock the whole tariff, except some 50 items, including textiles, free corn, sugars, tobacco and a few minor articles, had gone through, 300 items, including all the free having been rushed through in hours. The House adjourned in good humor, and Sir Richard wright looked very well / leased
