for Canada to-morrow. He and Lady Aberdeen left Haddo House yesterday to visit
Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone at Blackcraig
Castle, Porthshire, the residence of Mr.
George Armistead, where the latter are staying. The Earl is expected in London to-day to pay his concluding visit here before departure. The nobility and gentry of Aberdeenshire have been recently entertained at Haddo, and Lord and Lady Aberdeen, with their three sons, have been paying a visit to Lord Tweedmouth at Guisacaian.

Strikes Denounced. BELFAST, Sept. 6.—At the Trades' Union Congress in Ulster Hall yesterday the new president spoke at length concerning the president spoke at length concerning the labor question in the United Kingdom. He believed, he said, that trades' unionism was destined to be an honored instrument in freeing Ireland from the terrible incubus of religious bigotry and political intolerance. He denounced strikes as criminal folly in all cases where the resources of civilization had not been exhausted in efforts to avoid the use of such extreme measures. He also spoke of strikes as the "forlorn hopes" of the working people. He expressed the hope that the results obtained by the royal labor commission from their investigations would be crystallized in a system of conciliation and arbitration which would make industrial warfare far more infrequent than it now is.

Bank of British North America. The G. O. M. to Take a Well-Earned

Bank of British North America. London, Sept. 6.—The regular meeting of the general court of proprietors of the Bank of British North America was held at the head offices of the bank here yesterday. A dividend of 35 shillings per £50 share was declared. Mr. H. J. G. Kendall, member of the court of directors, presided. Mr. Kendall, in the course of his remarks to the meeting, referred to the satisfactory freedom from all financial panic exhibited by Canata at the present time, when so much depression existed elsewhere. This, he contended, showed the soundness of Canadian banks and the stability of its banking system. The prospects of the country's business and industries and the harvest outlook were good.

Mr. Gladstone Takes a Rest. LONDON, Sept. 6 .- Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone have left town for Scotland, and it is well understood that the Prime Minister will not be again seen in the House of will not be again seen in the House of Commons before adjournment. He has been advised that change and rest are absolutely essential for him after the strain of the last six months, and Sir William Harcourt is to lead the House in the absence of his chief. Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone are to arrive this morning at Blackcraig, Castle, Perthshire, on a visit to Mr. Armitstead, that most useful and complacent of men, who is also to entertain Mr. placent of men, who is also to entertain Mr. and Mrs. John Morley, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Gladstone, Mr. Herbert Gladstone, Mr. Henry Gladstone and Mrs. Drewe. Blackcraig; is in Strathardie, between Blairgowrie and Kirkmichael, and between Blairrowrie and Kirkmichael, and the scenery of the district is very mountainous. It is about the coldest and least sheltered part of Perthshire. The castle was built by the late Mr. Fraser about 40 years ago, and is a huge edifice in the Scottish baronial style. Mr. Fraser laid out the gardens and grounds and planted the whole demesne, which was quite bare when he purchased the estate. The castle occupies a very fine site, with the wooded hill of Blackcraig just behind it.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Sept. 6.—As a result of a conference of committees of spinners and manufacturers to-day it was agreed to recommend to the two associations that spinners' wages hereafter be paid on what is known as the standard list. This will mean a reduction in wages of about 10 per cent. to go into effect next Monday. The King Philip, Granite and the Laurel Lake mills will probably start Monday. It is probable that the Merchants, Mechanics, American Linens and one or two other concerns will start within two weeks on a reduced scale, although no agreement was signed to that effect. Secretary Howard and two other members of the spinners' committee think the spinners as a whole will agree to accept the cut down, and a prolonged strike will be averted. The weaver's demands were not considered. PROVIDINGE, R. I., Sept. 6.—Nearly 200 looms in Valley Falls mill were started will resume operations at once. UNCLE SAM'S CASH BALANCE

Is On the Wrong Side-Expenses Away Move Receipts.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 6.—Government receipts are still running low this month, the receipts from customs yesterday, $79,000, being the lowest for any one day since war times. The total revenues for the six days of this month aggregate only $3,890,000 or about $650,000 a day, while the expenditures foot up $4,900,000 or more than $300,000 per day. Because the expenditure continues to exceed the receipts the treasury balance, which, on $ept. 1, including the gold reserve, was $107,000,000 has declined to $105,500,000.
