1900 GREETINGS.

ЈОНИ Н. СНАРМАН & СО.

In wishing their many patrons a Happy New Year, also take this opportunity of thanking them for past favors, and to assure them that no effort will be spared in the future to increase their confidence in the store and its methods.

WE ARE DETERMINED to make the last year of the ni eteenth century the biggest in the history of London's retailing. To do this it is necessary to begin at once, so we start the first week in January with a great

White Goods

This will include White Goods of every description, from the finest damask to the cheapest cambric. One of the most important features will be Ready-to-Wear Garments of every description; also Linens, Napkins, Gray and White Cottons, Sheetings and Pillow Cottons. When we say that we secured these goods months ago, long before the late very marked advance in price, the importance of taking advantage of this sale will be apparent to all.

Watch our announcements for the next few weeks-they will suggest many money-saving chances.

McCoy Does Up Peter Maher in Five Rounds-A Easeball War-Other Sporting News.

PISTIC.

McCOY WON. New York, Jan. 2.-New Yorkers who are fond of sport stayed up until the early hours of the morning in the numerous resorts where sporting men are wont to gather. eagerly discussing the McCoy-Maher 25-round prize fight, which was pulled off yesterday afternoon at Coney Island. The Kid again placed himself in the championship class by defeating Maher in a short, crisp, well-fought battle of five rounds. The fight was scheduled to last 25 rounds, and the purse was to have been $20,000, but the attendance ers have been received by the managewas not as large as had been expected, and before the fight begun the principals agreed that the winner should receive the gross gate receipts. The battle was hard fought from start to finish, but McCoy was by far the cleverer man in ring tactics, dodging, side-stepping and hitting powers. He showed himself to be a good ring general, ever watching for an opening, and never falling to take fair advantage of one. Maher, although credited with being a heavy hitter, did not get in many effective blows. His foot work was poor, and at times he did not appear to have perfect control of himself. Maher weighed 172 pounds and McCoy 163. Mayer has fought many of his former battles at 190 pounds.

McCoy was the aggressor in the startforcing Maher to break ground. The Kild feinted cleverly with his left, Maher sparring with an anxious look on his face. The Irishman had McCoy in a tight place at an early stage of the fight, but the Kid broke away nimbly and sent a hard left on Maher's stomach before the firs 'ound had ended.

McCoy tantalized the big fellow with his feinting in the second round, and with a blow on the jaw sent him on his hands and knees, having decidedly the best of the bout.

Maher outpointed the Kid by 50 per cent in the next round, and Maher's friends became very confident that the Urishman would get the better of the Hoosier lad, but McCoy had a great deal more left in him than these people bargained for.

In the fifth and final round the Kid met Maner with a full swinging left, which landed on the point of the jaw, and the Irishman went down, resting on his right elbow, and was counted

Mr. Passmore, of Hamilton, whose decision in the last event was highly spoken of, will again act as official referee. Smith and his manager will again make the Grigg House their headquarters; Snyder and his manager will be at the Tecumseh House; St. Pierre and his manager at the City, and Carroll and his man at London House. A good fast contest may be expected between St. Pierre and Carroll, as both men are in the pink of condition, and eager to settle the question of supremacy. Following are their records:

Alger St. Pierre-John Carr (d), rounds; Kid Shock (w), 6 rounds; De Gardner (k), 3 rounds; Kid Fenwick (k), 14 rounds; Cyclone Delan (d), 10 rounds; John Carr (w), 5 rounds; Walter Potter (w), 8 rounds; Terrible Thompson (k), 11 rounds; Cully Ferguson (k), 17 rounds; Sandow Snyder, 6 rounds, lost on points; Jimmie Smith, 8 rounds, lost on points. St. Pierre is 24 years of age, and stands 5 feet 5 inches. in height, weighing 118 pounds. He has been boxing only two years, but is one of the gamest boys that ever entered a ring, as his fight with Smith on Nov. 7 proved him to be. He was born in Deroit, and is of French descent.

Bernard Carroll was also born in Detroit, but is now of Rochester. His first fight took place in September, 1898, and since then he has met the following well-known men, as well as a number of others: Shorty Dulker (d) 10 rounds, G. Zimmerman (d) 6 rounds, Paddy Murphy (w) 6 rounds, St. Paul Kid (w) 9 rounds, Joe Johnson, (k) 7 rounds, Young Lavigne (k) 17 rounds, Arthur St. Pierre 15 rounds (lost on points to St. Pierre), Billy Green (w)

Carroll is 18 years of age, stands 5 Carroll is 18 years of age, stands of feet 6 inches, weighs 116 pounds, and is a pupil of the well-known Jimmy Casey, the former light-weight cham-pion of Detroit, who retired two years

Tom Taylor and Tom Barber need little mention. Their clever set-to at the last contest brought them well before the public. Both men are training hard, and their "go" should be a very fast one.

Taylor was raised in Sarnia, and there won and defended the title of the champion of his district, never having lost a battle. The hardest battle was when he won the championship of Sarnia. His record is as follows: Wm. Cott (k) 15 rounds, Kid McLeod (d) 3 rounds, Jones (d) 2 rounds, Joe (d) 3 rounds, Jones (d) 2 rounds, Joe Dean (k) 5 rounds, Alf. Brown (k) 5 rounds, Jack Jones (d) 7 rounds, Jim Rooks (d) 4 rounds, Joe Simmons (d) 6 rounds. He is 21 years of age, weighs 120 pounds, stands 5 feet 5 inches in height.

Tom Barber was born in London,

England. Has won two gold medals and a cup. He is a sturdy young fellow and shows the making of a good fighter. He has defeated the following men: Billy Eastwood (k), 6 rounds, amateur champion of England; Con Fildon (d), 6 rounds, amateur champion, England; Jack Turpin (k), 5 rounds, this man he gave 6 pounds to; Joe Mitchell (k), 3 rounds, a pupil of Charlie Mitchell; Earl Cook (w), 7 rounds; and a number of others of less importance. He is 22 years of age, stands 5 feet 3 inches, weighs 116 pounds.

HOCKEY. The Stratford and London hockey clubs will meet at the Princess Rink on Wednesday night in the first match of the championship series. The visiting team is a strong one, and a great contest may be expected. "Buck" Ewing may be in the game. He is rapidly regaining his old-time form. Ernie Westcott has returned from a holiday trip, and will be on the forward line. The local management has asked the executive to name a referee. The players will not be decided upon until
