—The Chatham Association football team are endeavoring to arrange a game with the London club for Dominion Day, July 2.

—Arrangements are being made for an eight-day camp of the Boys' Brigade, which will likely be held in the vicinity of Port Stanley.

—Miss Allie Bradford left yesterday afternoon for Brantford to attend the wedding of Miss Maud Boulton to Mr. Frank Chapman, of New York.

—J. A. Richardson, Canadian passenger agent of the Wabash Railway, and E. H. Bennett, traveling passenger agent of the Chicago and Northwestern, are in the city.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Weldon, and daughter, of 489 Waterloo street, and James Owen, 555 Talbot street, left this morning on a three months' vacation. On their return they will remove to Toronto.

—George Vineall, of Talbot street, was released from jail yesterday on his own recognizance.

—A man who was arrested on a charge of drunkenness and threatening to kill Detective Rider.

—General Passenger Agent Bell, of the G. T. R., was interviewed by a committee of local Old Boys to arrange for an extension of the excursion rate for Old Boys' Day from Toronto and other points. The present cheap rate covers only one day.

—Mr. I. V. Ludwig, delegate to the Evangelical Lutheran Synod Conference, held at Normanby, Grey county, has returned. The London branch has been incorporated with the synod, and his new pastor, Mr. J. Herold, will take up his residence in London and hold his first service on Sunday.

—At the divisional court at Toronto yesterday, judgment was reserved on a motion to provide for the rectifying of a title in order that the inspector of asylums may realize on a claim of $2,000 for the maintenance of the inmate of the late John Walker, of London, who has been for many years an inmate of the asylum here.

—Ingersoll Old Boys go to Ingersoll tomorrow to take part in the demonstration and reunion there. The attractions for the day consist of band and firemen's tournaments, sports, etc. A special train will leave the G. T. R. station at 9 a.m. for Ingersoll. A special return rate of 60 cents has been secured.

—City Solicitor Meredith yesterday served Police Magistrate Love and W. H. Bartram with notice of a motion to be made before a Toronto judge on Friday, for an order of prohibition restraining the prosecution instituted against the corporation of the city for maintaining a nuisance in not repairing Cavendish street, West London. The motion is made on the ground that the magistrate has no jurisdiction to hear the case.

—At a meeting of the Children's Aid Society yesterday afternoon, and over which Sir John G. Macdonald, president, presided, the annual report of the society was presented. The report was a glowing one, and the society was commended for its work.

—The funeral of the late Wesley McBride took place from the family residence, 514 York street, this afternoon, at 4:30 o'clock. Rev. Upon arrival at the park the boys indulged in a very interesting game of baseball, which was only terminated by one of the professionals breaking the bat, which done to the good things justice was then served. After the game the young ladies, and after enjoying the music the company returned to the city at a seasonable hour, fully satisfied that the "first picnic" of the Twentieth Century Girls was a complete success.

METAL WORKERS' CONVENTION.

At this morning's session of the Metal Polishers', Buffers', Platers' and Brass Workers' International Convention, a number of reports of committees were received and other routine business transacted. The strikes at New York, Stamford, Conn., and Branford, Conn., were discussed and endorsed and financial aid voted to the strikers.

OLD BOYS' ACTIVITY.

Local Old Boys are being given evidence day by day of increased activity among other branches. Chairman McPhillips has received notices of the formation of societies in Sarnia, Port Huron, Strathroy and Petrolia. Word has been received from Detroit, saying that Toledo would most probably send along representatives with those of the City of the Straits. It is likely that the rate difficulty in Toronto may eventually be overcome. General Passenger Agent Bell, of the G. T. R., was in the city yesterday, and talked about this matter to Mayor Rumball. He says that he will do everything possible to secure the cheap rates. An enthusiastic meeting was held on Monday night, and the following officers were elected: President, Dr. Bert Leys; vice-president, Thomas Davies; secretary, Charles Sullivan; treasurer,
