FATE OF AMOS RUSIE.

Muncie, Ind., Dec. 7.—"Amos Rusie," laborer, $150 per day," are the words that appear on the time book of the Muncie Waterworks Company.

The "king of pitchers" is a laborer, a digger of ditches, and says he never has known the pleasure in life he now experiences since he has taken up this calling. At night he goes to his little cottage, where he dwells happily with the wife who once was compelled to secure a divorce, but who remarried him.

"My arm seems to have gone back on me," Rusie said, with a touch of pathos, as he was talking reminiscently with a party of friends concerning his baseball experiences, "but I am leading a good, clean life, and I am the last to need anyone's pity. I guess, though, my baseball days are over."

Mrs. Rusie is happy. It was she who always objected to his being a ball player, because it was during the days of his greatest success on the diamond that her life was made miserable.

Rusie's salary was once $6,000 for the season. FATE OF AMOS RUSIE.

OTTAWA'S TRAGEDY

Finding of the Bedies of Miss Bessie Blai and Mr. Harry A. Harper.

[Special to Advertiser.] Ottawa, Dec. 7.-The bodies of Miss Bessie Blair, daughter of Hon. A. G. Blair, and H. A. Harper, of the Labor Gazette, were found this morning by Matthias Blais, of Gatineau Point, the man who pulled Creelman out of the Evidence Interrupted by Frequent water last night and took him ashore in his boat. Blais would not let the grappling party pursue their work in the dark last night, as he said they would only disturb the bodies and Depositions Referred Chiefly to the cause them to move down the river. It turned out as he said, because he found them along with a grappling party this morning a short distance from where they went through the ice. The Dominion city police assisted in the work of recovering the bodies. The remains of Miss Blair will be continued at the police court this taken to her father's residence on O'Connor street, and the remains of morning. A long delay in beginning Harper to Dr. W. T. Telegrams of sympathy from all parts of Canada are pouring in for Hon. A. G. Blair, expressing sympathy in his sad bereavement. All the ministers in the city, ministers' wives, and many others are calling at the house today and extending their sympathy to the family.

THE VICTIMS.

[Toronto Globe.] Miss Bessie was a handsome and accomplished young lady of 21, and was her father's pet. She returned only in August last from the continent where she had been studying in com-pany with another sister, Miss Aufrom the hospital, and Miss Kilbourne drey Blair. He was a graduate of Toronto University, and after leaving the university entered newspaper life. He started work on the London, Ont., press, and afterwards accepted a position on the staff of The Mail and Empire, Toronto. After about two years' service on that paper he accepted the position of Ottawa correspondent to the Montreal Herald. In the latter part of the summer of 1900 he was appointed assistant to Mr. King, the deputy minister of labor, and associate editor of the Labor promise and had a bright career before him.

She explained the object and workings of the organization which tion, witness dealt further with the she represents.

The contest between the American Federation of Musicians and the Detroit Central Labor Union over the seating of the latter's delegate, was settled by the Ceneral Labor Union being recognized. An amicable adjustment of the differences between the Central Labor Union and the Musicians' Union is anticipated.

Sixty resolutions have been introduced. Four demand the re-enactment of the Chinese exclusion act, one commends President Roosevelt for the position he took in his message with reference to the Chinese question, and a large number call for strict trade autonomy. Max Hayes, of Cleveland, introduced a resolution providing for the admit-tance of minors under 18 years to unions at a reduced per capita tax.

Delegate Deirch, of Washington, D.C., presented a resolution protesting against subsidy legislation by congress, and another resolution called for the appointment of a committee of five to draft a memorial to congress to prohibit the granting of injunctions by courts against organized labor.

Other resolutions provide for boycotts against concerns in various parts of the country, giving seamen the full right to quit any merchant vessel on which the service has been obnoxious to him, and for universal labels. Edward F McSweeney, deputy commissioner of immigration at the port of New York, said the spirit of the immigration law is being violated "by the wholesale."

He advised the exclusion of Japs as well as Chinese.
