CHICAGO.

Chicago, July 23.—There was a small and nervous trade in grains today. The crowd was apathetic. Light local stocks kept the shorts in July anxious as to all grains, and manipulative deals were called off in the absence of vigorous trading. September wheat closed 1/3c higher, September corn 1/3c lower, and September corn 1/3c lower, and September cort 1/3c higher, provisions closed 5c to Jats 4c higher; provisions closed 5c to 4c higher; browlings of wheat were 52 cars, 6 of contract grade; Minneapolis and Duluth reported 289 cars, making a and Duluth reported 255 cars, making a total for the three points of 491 cars, against 340 last week and 423 a year ago. Primary receipts were 1,058,000 bu, com-pared to 1,349,000 bu last year. Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 145 cars; corn, 170 cars; oats, 140 cars; hogs, 18,000

A Rise in Corn always follows the use of Putnam's Corn Extractor, which cures all kinds of corns in 24 hours, without pain. Putnam's gives the best results. Use it. Chicago's shipping has more than quadrupled in the last 30 years, and today Chicago ranks fourth among the ports of the world, London, New York and Hamburg being alone ahead of it. A CAREFULLY-PREPARED PILL.— Much time and attention were expended in the experimenting with the ingredients that enter into the composition of Parmelee's Vegetagle Pills before they of Parmelee's Vegetavie Pills before they were brought to the state in which they were first offered to the public. Whatever other pills may be, Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are the result of much expert study, and all persons suffering from dyspepsia or disordered liver and kidneys may confidently accept them as being what they are represented to be being what they are represented to be.

The Argentine Republic is the strongest in artillery of any South American state. She has 346 field guns, 246 mountain guns, 36 siege guns and 42 howitzers. ATHLETES, BICYCLISTS and others should always keep HAGYARD'S YELLOW OIL on hand. Nothing like it for stiffness and soreness of the muscles, sprains, bruises, cuts, etc. w The Parks Committee of Hull, England, has refused the gift of a polar bear because it would cost $1,000 to dig a pit and build a house for the animal.

PILES --- ITCHING. BLIND OR

BLEEDING.

Symptoms: Molsture, intense itching and stinging, most at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. Swayne's Ointment stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists or by mail, for 50 cents. GIRL GRADUATES SANG NEGRO SONGS

A Feature of Commencement Exercises Before the Civil War.

"The letters printed from time to time about the old-time minstrel! songs remind me that plantation melodies used to be a part of the programme of commencement days in the country where I lived," said a former resident of the South.

"There had been no such thing as a minstrel show in my town up to the time I speak of. Whatever we had in the way of minstrel songs was unadulboats.

There was a young ladies' academy in the town in which the beauty of at present, owing to the fact that the that part of the State was educated. The commencement exercises by the young women who played the guitar and sang. I reckon you would call it

"The entertainment was always given in the largest church in the town, because in those days no young woman of refinement would go upon a stage even for one night. Most of the songs on such occasions were taken right from the darkies. I remember one which I have not heard since that time, and I do not remember to have seen it in print since then. I recall one verse:

music that survived. "Another which I never heard in a minstrel show, but which was brought out on succeeding commencement days was this:

'I've worked many a day, I've handled many a hoe.
I'll turn my eye before I die,
And see the sugar cane grov.

"Then a lot of the pretty girls would rise from their chairs and sing the

"There was a gallery in the front of the church which was always occupied by the servants of the best families of the town, and when this old plantation song and melody was sung by the young 'missus' I have seen the negroes in the gallery in contortions trying to suppress their feelings. I have seen all the best minstrel shows on the road since then, but I have never heard any such negro melodies as I heard from the beautiful girls of that young ladies' academy on commence-
