Serious Outbreak Under the New Regime at Hankow.

port of an outbreak under the new regime in China came to the state department today from United States Consul-General Martin at Hankow, who reported that a riot had occurred on DIPLOMATIC CORPS the Yaigtse River in that vicinity. The cause of the trouble was not stated. Hankow is about four hundred miles inland, and is on the railway line from Pekin to Canton. It is one of the largest interior places in China. Just two hours before Consul Martin's dispatch came there was a cable from Minister Rockhill at Pekin, reporting all quiet there, and adding any disturbance.
