HERE AND THERE ABOUT THE CAMPS

HAVE A HEART!
Some men of the 149th Battalion are calling on the weatherman to "have a heart." At the lower end of the camp is a series of springs and these are working overtime this damp weather. Some of the boys go to sleep lulled by the sound of purling brooks underneath their ears. The Engineers are making an effort to curb the impetuosity of the springs and hope to have the camp in shape very soon.

ENGAGEMENT OF COL. BRADLEY.
Mr. and Mrs. R. Bruce Macpherson announce the engagement of their only daughter, Helen Gertrude, to Lieut. Col. Thomas T. Bradley, O. C. 149th Battalion.

RIVALRY FOR HONORS.
The Engineers have inclosed their camp with a very smart-looking fence composed of white painted posts connected with white ropes. There is considerable rivalry among the various units on the heights to see which shall have the prettiest camp. The 110th claims to lead in this respect at present, but the other units are pressing them close. D Company of the 135th is grading its lines, and all are making a lavish display of flowers, white-wash and paint.

AT COVE CAMP NOW.
A and B Companies of the 110th Battalion moved to the camp at the Cove ranges yesterday, where they will complete their musketry course. Weather permitting they will have finished the course by Thursday, when C and D Companies will be taken down for a similar course.

HOSPITAL CAPTAIN.
Dr. Jento of this city is being appointed to No. 10 Stationary Hospital (Western University Unit) with the rank of Captain. The appointment has not yet appeared in orders, but it is understood that it will be approved in a few days.

Mrs. W. M. O. Lochead, wife of Lieut. Col. W. M. O. Lochead of the 118th Battalion, has taken a furnished house in the city and will bring her family here for the summer months.

WILL SEE THEMSELVES.
Prior to the departure of the 118th Battalion from Berlin, moving pictures of the unit were taken. These are being shown now in Berlin theatres and are said to be very good. They will be shown here.

Lieut. Col. W. M. O. Lochead, O. C. of the 118th, is trying to arrange for a special matinee to which he hopes to march his whole unit for a view of the pictures.

CANVAS GARAGES.
Two large tents have been erected in the lines of the 118th Battalion to house the battalion automobiles. These are ten in number, most of them privately owned.

A new recruit, Jas. Maxwell, was accepted by the 153th Battalion this morning.

DATE TO BE FIXED.

No date has yet been set for the presentation of colors to the 153th Battalion. Next week the 153th will be duty battalion, when it is not thought likely there will be any time for the ceremony, so it is hoped to be able to arrange it for Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday of the following week. The unit desires to have the colors before it leaves for Stratford for the big Dominion Day celebration.

In addition to the presentation of the colors, the ceremony of trooping the colors will be carried out.

OUT OF QUARANTINE.
The 186th Battalion is no longer in quarantine. Mumps developed some

"ALL ON A SUMMER'S DAY"

Advertiser Illustrations.

Stanley J. Meredith and his company will present a theatrical garden party at "Belvedere," the soldiers' home, on Saturday, June 21, weather permitting, at which the opera, "All On a Summer's Day," will be given. Once in the afternoon and once in the evening. Mr. Meredith's company will have complete charge of the fête, as there are a number of ladies who appeared in the cabaret which Mr. Meredith produced last January, and at the Winter Garden later in the year, who are not performing in the opera, and they, assisted by various prominent citizens, will manage the various booths, cafes, stalls, etc., which promise to make the garden party a record-breaking entertainment.

All the refreshments, as well as the many attractive articles that are to be for sale, have been donated by the city merchants, and their generous contributions to this splendid cause time ago, and as it was feared they might spread the men were forbidden to leave camp or mingle with men of other units. However, only four men contracted the disease, and these were isolated and the balance turned loose. The men are not sorry, as close confinement does not appeal very much to them.

THREE STRATFORD MEN AMONG THE WOUNDED

STRATFORD, June 11.—News came today of two more local casualties, making five for the week-end. Lance Corporal George Hornum, of No. 23 General Hospital, Etaples, June 5, suffering from gunshot wounds in the face, thigh and hand, and Lance Corporal Gordon Wildfong, of No. 3 Stationary Hospital, Wimereux, June 5, wounded in the left arm, are the latest. Saturday three were reported as wounded.

Pte. George Farley has been severely wounded in the thigh. Pte. Hugh Connolly wounded in the hip and Sapper Alex. Davidson, the nature of whose wounds has not been learned. Pte. Barclay is in the British Red Cross Hospital, Wimereux, having cannot be too highly spoken of. Mr. Meredith's company has already raised over $700, of which some $400 has gone to start the blind fund in this district, and their every effort for the future is to be for the Canadian soldiers blinded in action. Your money, no matter how small or how large the amount, can surely go to no more sacred or deserving cause than that of assisting our young Canadian heroes who, in defence of you and this Canada of ours, have permanently lost their sight.

Think of it! Blinded! Never again to see mother, father, wife, brother, sister, sweetheart or friend—never again to see the sunlight! Can there be one who will not give to such a cause?

Permanent homes must be provided and kept up; workshops must be erected to teach the blind to help themselves. The call comes to you, each and every one of you. Carry on—or do your bit.

been admitted on June 3. He has been in the trenches for upwards of eight months. He is 31 years of age and worked on a farm in Downsview before enlistment. The wounded soldier is one of a fine family, every male member of which, save the father, is in khaki. Four are in the 118th Battalion, while another is in the 34th.

Has Brother Serving.
Pte. Hugh Connolly is a son of Alex. Connolly and is the second brother in khaki. He was admitted to the County London War Hospital at Epsom, on June 5. The young lad is not yet 19 years of age.

Sapper Alex. Davidson is a young Scotchman, who enlisted here with the 18th. He later transferred to the engineers. He is single and was born in 1882.

Lt. H. Uglow Missing.
Among the officers recently reported missing is Lieut. Harry Uglow, who was formerly of the Merchants Bank staff in this city. He enlisted at Toronto, but was later transferred to the Imperial service. His home is in Western Ontario where he has been in the employ of the bank for some time.

STRIKING TRIBUTES TO EARL KITCHENER AT CAMP SERVICES

Chaplains of Battalions Praise
His Work for Empire.

SOUGHT BEST FOR ALL

Supreme Example of Great
Ideals for Which Britain Stands.

All the battalions in camp attended divine service Sunday morning. Three massed church parades were held.

On Carling Heights the services were conducted by Capt. A. L. G. Clarke, chaplain of the 118th Battalion. The 110th, 111th, 118th and 135th battalions attended, the music being furnished by the band of the 118th.

The chaplain took his text from Philippians, III: 13-14: "Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended; but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

These words of St. Paul, he said, were the true ideal of the British Empire. As St. Paul had been determined, so also was the Empire to press toward only the best and highest ideals of life. He referred to Earl Kitchener as the supreme example of this spirit. The hero of Khartoum always had aspired to the best in life, not only for himself, but for the Empire which he loved.

"Kitchener was as great in peace as in war," he said. "His death, though a calamity, was not the disaster it would have been a year ago."

Capt. Ronald McLeod of the 168th Battalion preached to the men of the 168th, 186th and 149th battalions at Frances camp. The 149th band was in attendance.

Restoring the Year.

The chaplain took as his topic "Restoring the Year," speaking from the text: "I will restore unto you the year."

He showed how in the days of the Israelites, when their land had been overrun by invading hordes, the years had been restored by the prophet. Practically restoring the years was impossible, but we did it when we practised intensive farming in one year as was ordinarily made in five.

Britain's Government in her colonies restored the years. The work of Kitchener and others in Egypt had more than doubled the production there, and had done more in a few years than the former masters of the country during the last century.

The same in India and other places. Christ had said: "Restore not in years, but in deeds." This was what the men who offered themselves in defence of their country were doing. Those who had perished while carrying out some valorous action of sacrifice on the field of battle lived more in that hour than others during a lifetime.

The captain concluded his address by showing that Christ had come to restore the years.

The 142nd, 153rd and 161st battalions held a massed service at the east camp. The band of the 142nd Battalion was in attendance here. Capt. W. C. Ridgill, the chaplain of the down Own Battalion, addressed the men.

The Roman Catholic soldiers attended service at 9 o'clock at St. Michael's Church, accompanied by the bugle band of the 118th.

All services were held according to the new city time.

EASTER DAY BROUGHT SOLDIER MIXED FEELINGS

Lieut. Gerald Greene Pays Tribute to His Fallen Comrades.

Lieut. Gerald Greene, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Greene, Toronto, formerly of Walkerville, and nephew of H. B. Elliot, K.C., and the Misses Elliot, Dufferin avenue, now a prisoner of war in Saxony, has written a most striking letter to his mother, in which he pays tribute to the gallantry and splendid qualities of the men who died a year ago last April. He was attached to the 3rd (Toronto) Battalion, and was made a prisoner at Langemarck. He was in charge of the men, when the final moments of the battle came, all the other officers being killed or wounded. By a strange coincidence, his brother, Lieut. Elliot Greene, was placed in command of the 9th Battery, owing to the death of his commanding officer, a year later. The letter is as follows:

Eschwege, Sachsen.
Easter Sunday, April 23, 1916.
My Dearest Mother,—My thoughts go home to you this Easter Day, and with them thoughts of other happier ones spent with you. My second Easter separated from you by so many miles, is the first anniversary of the most stirring moments in my life.

At dawn this day a year ago we advanced across the fields from which there was no return and where many of my good friends made the supreme sacrifice, smiles on their faces, sure that the principles for which they laid down their lives were the highest for which man can hope to aim.

I find words indeed futile things to express the sadness in my heart today for my comrades in their untimely graves in Belgium, and so many others this Easter Day must be a memory of mingled pride and grief and of bright recollection of those whose glory will never fade with time. For come what may in this war, the record of those brave men who met a new and unknown agent of warfare and did not flinch will stand forever. So, I say, to their everlasting memory, be all honor.

WELLINGTON REFUSES GRANTS TO UNITS.

QUELPH, June 11.—Grants of all sorts had a rough passage getting through the Wellington County Council on Saturday, and some of them did not make the grade at all. The first to be rejected was a grant for the purchase of a new building for the farmers' and women's institutes. There was strong opposition displayed toward these, and they were reduced on account of the patriotic work they are doing.

When the matter of making a grant to the 3rd and 64th Batteries for the purchase of marquee tents and kitchen utensils came up, the purse strings were pulled tight, and the request of Major Cameron and Major Walker was turned down flat.

Batteries Leave Refused.

Assistance for the county battalion was not given. A vote of $1,200 had been asked, to assist recruiting and to purchase marquee tents for the London camp where the 152nd is now stationed. This may be paid out of the war fund to the county at a later date, but at this session of council it was shelved.

EMBRO SOLDIERS VISITED.

EMBRO, June 11.—Col. McMillen of the 168th Battalion, gave the members of the county council, viz: Reeve D. M. Ross, Deputy-Reeve Wesley Kent and Reeve Dr. H. B. Atkinson, an invitation to attend the soldiers' parade, which was held in London on Friday. They went and report having spent a pleasant time with the soldiers from this vicinity.

Special provision for communion services for Catholic soldiers have been made by Col. L. W. Shannon, camp commandant. He has ordered that every facility be afforded any officer, N.C.O. or man desirous of attending these services. BIBLES ARE GIVEN TO 91ST BATTALION.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
ST. THOMAS, June 11.—At the open air service of the 91st Battalion today, Bibles were given to all the officers and men of the unit by the Bible Association. This is indicative of an early departure, as this presentation is always made shortly before troops go overseas.

ST. THOMAS BOYS PLAY BASEBALL IN FLANDERS

George Rowley, former president of the St. Thomas ball team, has received a letter from Belgium giving an account of a ball game in Flanders between the Second Pioneers and one of the battalions. The Second Pioneers, which is composed principally of St. Thomas men, won out by a 14-8 score, principally through the leadership and all round play of "Dad" Stewart, who covered first sack for the Pioneers.

STEAMER FLOATED.

Lourenco, Marques, Africa, June 12.—The American steamer City of Savannah, from Calcutta and Colombo, for Boston and New York, reported a considerable routine business. The next season of the council will open on December 6.
