$6,500—45 Becher St. I have been given the exclusive sale of this exceptionally fine residence on Becher St. The owner of which on account of being out of the city for a considerable period of time finds it impossible to look after the place as it should be. The house is a 1½-story red pressed brick, 2 bedrooms, 2-bath, full three-part basement and furnace, fireplace, veranda, garage, driveway, and is in one of the finest residential districts in London.

$5,500—East, white brick cottage, 3 bedrooms, 2 living-rooms, full basement, hydro, gas, water, porch, driveway, fruit trees.

$4,100—South, 1½-story frame, 3 bedrooms, 3-bath, full basement, 2 living-rooms, hydro, gas, hot water, full 2-bath, fireplace, veranda, nicely decorated, fireplace, veranda.

I have an exceptionally good proposition for a man with a man with $20,000 to buy half interest in the box ball alley, which contains 14 American box ball alleys and one spare alley. There is a large refreshment booth in one corner of the front facing the Board Walk, that is now rented for $300.00 the season, also a game booth on other side of the Board Walk, and a living-room at rear of building for two people. No expense attached to this, as the alleys are automatic. The present owner has other concessions on the Board Walk and cannot look after it. Owner will pay this partner $100 monthly to help the business, as well as half the profits. I consider this an exceptionally good proposition for a real estate man. Owner will take as part payment a house in London or a good automobile.

ACES BEAT HAMS AND TIE FOR LEAD

Gillenwater Stages Come-back and Allows Only Five Hits.

SAGINAW, June 25.—Before a crowd of 3,000 frenzied fans, Saginaw defeated Hamilton today, 4 to 3, and tied the Hams for the lead. Gillenwater, who was taken for 18 hits by Hamilton Thursday, came back and shut them out with five hits. Not a man reached third, and only three got to second.

Sullivan's wildness accounted for Saginaw's first two runs. Hitts by Mills and Gillenwater brought the third, and Duggan's triple scored Pike with the fourth. Two Aces were thrown out at the plate, and Hunter's spectacular catch of Kirby's drive in the second retired the side with the bases loaded, cutting off three runs. Gillenwater and Miller featured the hitting, with three hits apiece. Miller and Pike played sensational ball, first and second bases handling 18 chances between them.

The box score:
