

4 PAGES OF
ROTOGRAVURE

The London Advertiser

LONDON, ONT., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1925

4 PAGES OF
ROTOGRAVURE

One of the scenes frequently seen in this district. Sheep grazing on a farm in Middlesex. —Photo by Foster, Kerrwood.

Mrs. Harold MacDonald, of Oil City, who prior to her marriage last month was Miss Beatrice McCallum of Wilton Grove. —Photo by the Darragh Studio.

A jazz band all by himself! This music-maker in Italy ought to do well in vaudeville.

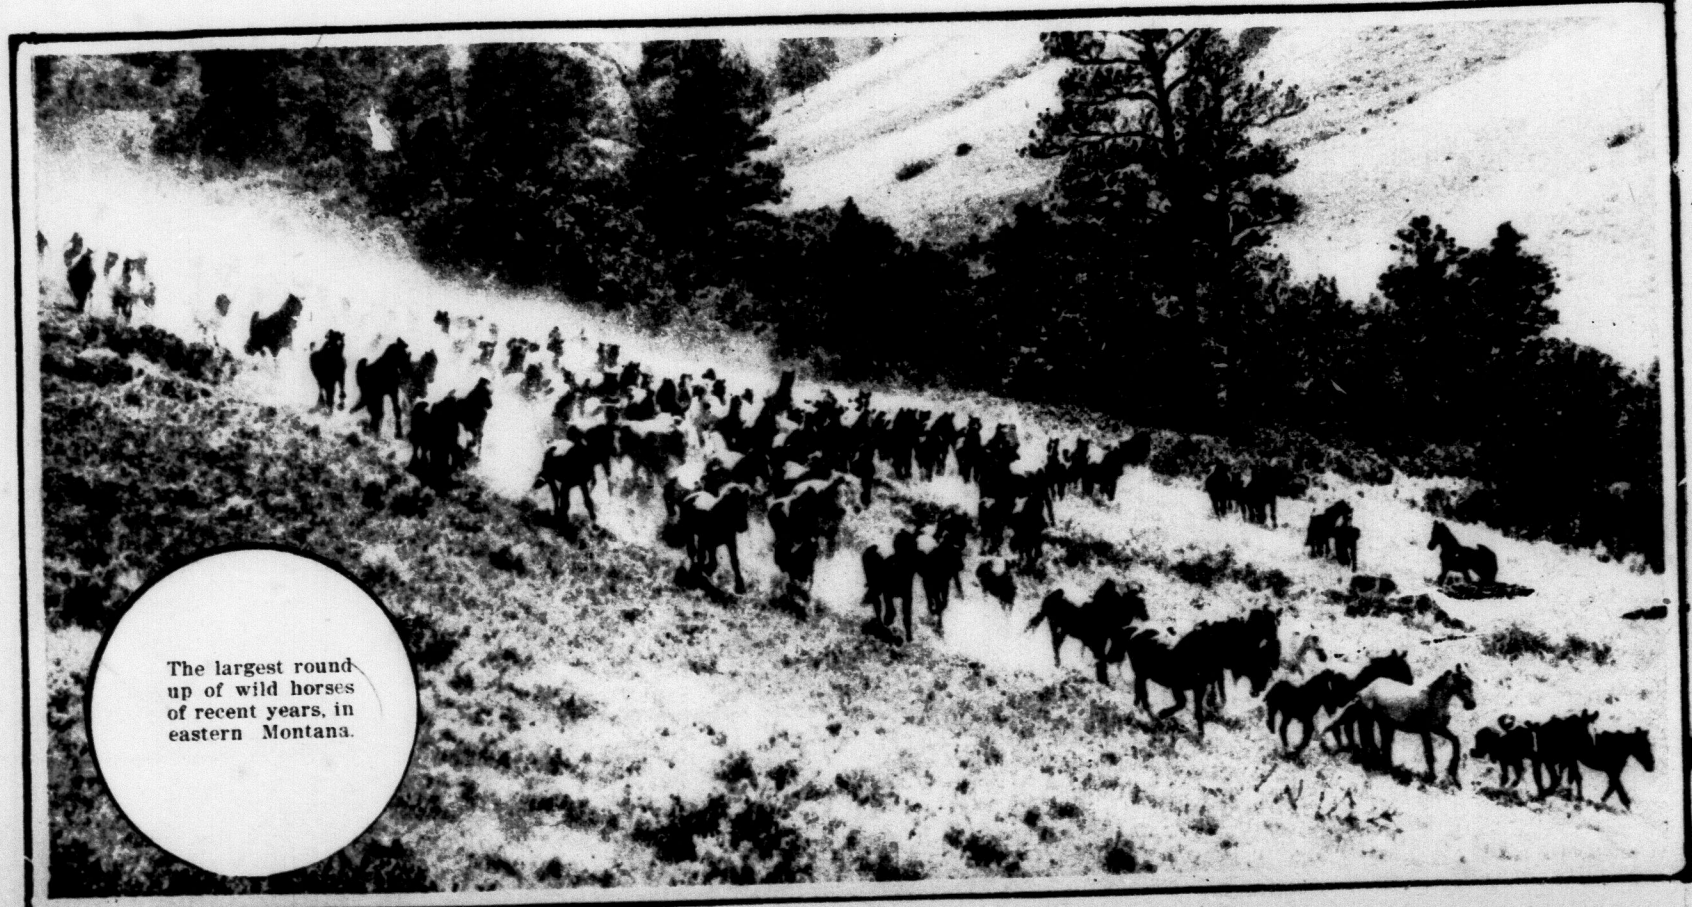

A desperate finish. Andre Mourlon of France winning from W. Rangeley of England at international meeting at Brighton, England.

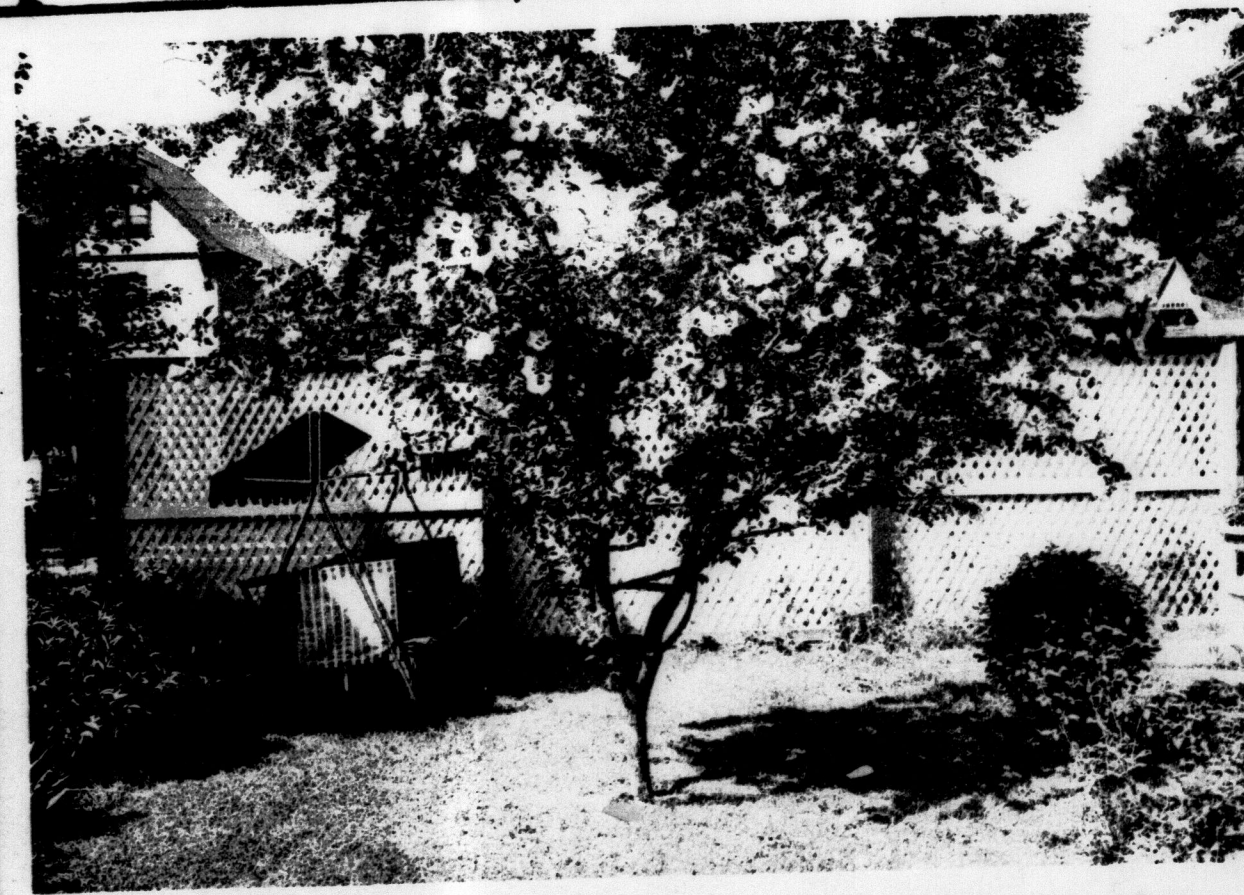

William Mowbray Sifton, charming eight months old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Sifton, 381 Grosvenor street, London. —Photo by the Darragh Studio.

Miss Lucy Greensides, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Greensides, London, snapped beneath a royal palm in Florida.

The largest round-up of wild horses of recent years, in eastern Montana.

Rose of Sharon, 35 years old, blooming in the garden of W. R. Jarman, president of the Forest City Laundry.