Canadian Press Despatch. Montreal, Dec. 30.-Canadiens uncorked the surprise of the local N. H. L. season when they trimmed the smart Montreal Maroons team here tonight, ? to 4, in a game which bristled with action, much of it of the strenuous and unorthodox hockey which occasionally breaks out when the two local teams clash. One incident caused an teams clash. One incident caused an uproar and led to the suspension of Billy Boucher of Canadiens after the game and to the arrest of a spectator. In the heat of the scoreless deadlock in the first period, Joitat rushed and shot, When Goal Umpire Ernie Russell would not allow him a goal, Joilat attacked Russel with his stick. Russell grabbed the stick, but, in turn, was pinned by the arms by a spectator. At this point Boucher rushed in and cracked Russell over the face with his stick. Piayers intervened, but Russel had still the spectator to deal with, and he did it in a smart manner. Then the police jumped into action, and the spectator was arrested.

In the meantime the two officials, Lafiamme and O'Leary, had not seen the fuss. No penatty was awarded, as the arbiters followed Noble and Stewart down the ice in a rush, Stewart scoring and starting a regular tallying bee.

In the second period Montreal worked out a 3 to 1 lead on goals by Munro and Kitchen, but then the great Maroon machine cracked, and Canadiens started a flashy offensive which could not be stemmed, and while they were about it, the rubbed it in, going to the very last, who Morenz, Joilat and Leduc starring.

With Munro weakened by former injuries, the Maroon defence was away off its former standard, and they were skated into exhaustion by the Canadien speed demonds.

hitting the ball. I got an idea. Going back to the rear end of the coach, where Schaefer was engaged in telling stories, I showed him the picture and remarked: "Schaef, if you copy this style at bat and swing on a ball as Wagner does, I'll bet you a suit of clothes that you'll bat' at least .500 on this trip." Schaefer looked at the picture carefully and answered, "You're on. Save your money for that suit."
