Kingsron, Feb. 3.— A convict named McGuire yesserbay buried himself in a load of manure being drawn out to be dumped on the ice. When the wagon was passing through the gate, a guard plunged a fork into the load, which was followed by a loud shriek. The warden had got wind of the intended ettern. The presup shrief itself be slipper.
"I didn't th think abou-about it," wailed Johnny, "but I'll get prepared if you'll let me."

"How is it possible now?" asked the mother, a little puzzled.
"I'll put the dust pan where I know ou always hit."

A Busy Woman.

"You are kept pretty busy now a-days," remarked a stranger to Mra-Simmons, whose husband has a ranche on Onion Creek.

"Yes, hardly get time to turn around. There is always something to keep one busy. If it ain't the cows, it's the sheep; if it ain't the sheep, it's the sheep; if it ain't the pigs, it's the children."
