Cotton Spinners' Reductions.

LONDON, July 22. - A meeting of master cotton spinners was held to-day, at Manchester, when it was resolved to send a circular to the members of the Master Cotton Spinners' Association, asking them to agree to a 10 per cent. reduction of wages and to a reduction of hours, provided that 75 per cent. of the spinners in the Association were in favor of the arrangement. The answers are returnable up to August 2.

The Duke of Salisbury.

LONDON, July 21. - It is thought probable the Marquis of Salisbury will accept, in retiring from office, the dukedom declined in 1880 and on the occasion of the Queen's jubilee, in 1887. The Queen is reported to have renewed her offer.

The Cholera Alarm.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 21. - The visit of the Amero of Bokhara to St. Petersburg has been postponed, as it is feared that he might bring cholera along with his retinue and might himself be taken ill, which would alarm his subjects. Private letters say that cholera is spreading along the whole length of the Trans-Asian railway. It is officially stated that cholera has broken out in the Government of Koo Ban, on the east shore of the sea of Anzov, and on the Black sea.

The Wreck of the Chicago.

LONDON, June 22. - The Evening Globe says that the verdict in the case of the wrecked steamer Chicago is a just one. The captain of an Atlantic liner is in the horns of a dilemma. He would be unpopular with both owners and passengers unless he drove his vessel at the highest possible speed. On the other hand, in so doing, the captain risks such a disaster as overtook the City of Chicago. Nevertheless, it is possible to feel sympathy for Capt. Bedford under the circumstances. The St. James Gazette takes occasion to urge the use of mechanism for automatic soundings.

TORONTO, July 21. - A mastiff, weighing 100 pounds, was inadvertently locked in a vacant store, on June 18th, and was not discovered till last night. It was still alive after its 32 days' fasting, but weighed only 25 pounds. A skilled veterinarian thinks he can save it.

MR. BLAKE'S POSITION.

The Saturday Review Thinks he is Only in Favor as a Screen.

LONDON, July 22. - The Saturday Review in an article on the Irish situation takes occasion to eulogize Hon. Edward Blake, the Canadian, who has just been elected for South Longford. In praising Mr. Blake, however, the Review seems to be animated less by friendliness than by a desire to speak well of him at the expense of his fellow members of the Nationalists. The article says that Mr. Blake is a man of high character, and that he is now proposing to angle with him, and they intend by means of him to hook others. Mr. Blake, the article goes on to say, is a scholar, a lawyer and a statesman of high repute. He has the usual respectability to the Nationalists. Two members of a Dublin Parliament, or of an Irish contingent at Westminster, might easily become the instruments and stipendiaries of foreign powers across the Atlantic, or across the Channel. The hands of Irish patriots are familiar with American gold now as they were with French gold a century ago. Men like Mr. Blake are a little in favor with the Nationalists only as a screen for their disreputable associates.

The Silver Queen is being steadily developed. A night shift has been set to work striking on the lead. A trail is being cut from this property to the Silver King.

CANADIAN NEWS.

Most encouraging reports continue to come about the Dandy. The face of the drift is in solid ore, some of it running as high as 200 ounces to the ton; and two men are able to take out two tons a day. There are 1,930 tons of ore on the dump, and the amount in sight is enormous. The Dandy is ready for a concentrator, and its owners intend that one shall be at work there before long.

It has been impossible to make sure of the identity of the Reid who was drowned in Sloan Lake. Rumor has it, however, that it was "The Major." If this be true, a genial, hard-working old fellow has been lost.

During the past week the outlet has fallen three feet, at least, and in consequence trout fishing has much improved. Swarms of small brown fry are on the water, and are greedily taken. Fair sport can be had fishing from the Canadian Pacific Railway wharf, or at Bogus Town.

Who Murdered the Boy. ORILLIA, July 21. - Joseph Badger, aged 12, found hanging in his father's barn at Rathburn, on May 15th, was buried two days later. Rumors of foul play culminated in an inquest, to-day. The body was too much decomposed for the doctors to detect the cause of death, but the evidence given by other witnesses caused the jury to return a verdict of wilful murder against persons unknown.

Disappointed Strikers. KINGSTON, July 21. - Chown & Cunningham's striking moulders are beginning to return to work, after being out six weeks. Some who returned say that their colleagues did not treat them fairly, inasmuch as they received little or no support or strike allowances.

CAPITAL NOTES.

Report on the Condition of the Str. "Earle" - Increased Exports.

Railway Construction in Ontario - New B. C. Post Offices - Whiskey Smugglers.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

OTTAWA, July 22. - The Department of Agriculture have received a satisfactory report of the condition of the hull of the steamer Earle, but are awaiting advice as to the state of the boilers before purchasing her for quarantine purposes.

The exports of the year show an increase of fifteen millions and a quarter. The imports have increased $3,000,000. The June figures show a steady improvement.

A prominent capitalist proposes to start railway construction in Ontario, capital, half a million. Mr. Wainwright, manager of the Grand Trunk Railway, is a leading promoter.

The Government troops reached the smuggling headquarters at Isle au Coudres, this morning. They found Bouchard and his schooner there, but no trace of the liquor. As there was nothing incriminatory about Bouchard's vessel, no action was taken.

New post-offices have been opened in B.C. at St. Eugene, Mission, Tappen Siding, Yale, and Squamish, Westminster.

VANCOUVER'S BLACK HOLE.

The Quarantine Declared to be Legal - Mr. Bowack Remains in Jail.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

NEW WESTMINSTER, July 21. - Judge McCraith gave judgment, to-day, in the Bowack habeas corpus case, in favor of Vancouver city, sustaining the action taken by the city authorities in quarantine matters. The judgment was delivered in the presence of a few persons and His Lordship ordered it to be copied and laid before him again, before being forwarded to Vancouver.

The reporters could not get hold of it, to-day. This decision settles, so far, the doubt existing as to the legality of the quarantine.

VANCOUVER, July 21. - Mr. Bowack cannot appeal from Judge McCraith's decision. He can simply apply for another judgment. He has not made up his mind what to do, but will probably serve the rest of his time quietly, as the end of his term of quarantine is not far distant.
