MIGHT HAVE BEEN STARTLING
Just a Possibility That There Was Exhibition of Drunkenness.

One afternoon, in a train running over a bridge, an amusing confession was made between the conductor and a passenger who appeared to be under the influence of liquor.
The passenger was, however, against
"yabbering" and "yabbering" again.
No more the conductor.

Once more the passenger collector advised his money for "yabbering" passenger and "yabbering" again.

The conductor went through the train and punched the local tickets.
Then he returned to the train and gave me your ticket or of you exactly the same as the other. The passenger, however, was against
"yabbering" and "yabbering" again.
No more the conductor.

"What's your ticket?" demanded the passenger. "You certainly have one somewhere about your person."

The fellow offered no answer. At that the conductor grabbed him by the collar and pushed him to his feet, but he sank back into his seat. The conductor then went to the rear of the train and punched the local tickets.
Then he returned to the train and
gave me your ticket or of you exactly the same as the other. The passenger, however, was against
"yabbering" and "yabbering" again.
No more the conductor.

Costs Less in the End
The cost of a motor car is not its price alone.
It's the price plus the running cost plus repairs divided by the miles of service.
And on this basis the Gray-Dort costs less in the end —less even than cars lower priced. Year after year this fine light car does go farther on a set of tires or a gallon of gasoline—does buy out of the repair shop.

You will enjoy owning a Gray-Dort—enjoy the comfort of its roomy, luxurious body; easy to control in traffic; quick to pick up, speedy on open stretches and powerful on hills; and you'll be proud of its real beauty.

The touring car is $1250, the Gray-Dort Special—the car with added refinements and extra equipment, is $1350 extra; there are also a coupe and a sedan. All prices f.o.b. Chatham and are subject to change without notice.
