It was terribly chilly on the Jarvis treet grounds yesterday and as a conse-Suence the attendance to see the baseball match between the Torontos and the Maple Leafs was rather slim. But non-attendants whole a fairly good game. The Torontos as usual were outbatted, but in the seventh innings they contrived to rattle the Maple Leafs and with only one base hit to the ten mon at bat managed to score six runs, which saved them from experiencing the most ignominious defeat of the seeson. The Maple Leafs played a good fielding game throughout except in the unfortunate eventh. They also batted well, knocking missed the opportunity of seeing on th which saved them from experiencing the most ignominious defeat of the season. The Maple Leafs played a good fielding game throughout except in the unfortunate seventh. They also batted well, knocking winner, Ernest, by Enquirer —Jacenet, she came within an ace of winning, finishing with a rush that could scarcely have failed te result in victory had it commenced earlier. As it was she beat such cracks as Young Duke, Disturbance, Excelsior and Navarro. Bob, with his usual luck, has evidently struck a good thing and has no reason to regret Mr. Owen's little piece of play. McKinley for a total of six bases, while Fitzgerald, whose pitching was terribly erratic, was only hit for three. Warner made a magnificent running catch in left field. The only earned run was made by Guelph in the third innings, Cockman making a base hit and Wrighs following it with a two bagger, which brought the former home. O Rourke for the Torontos play. 0 distinguished himself behind the bat by a piece of sharp play, catching a foul fly and throwing to Macklin, who nailed his man at second. Macklin surprised himself with a clean base hit and then polit it by getting off the base while the ball was yet in first's hands, McKinley was scarcely up to his usual form in the box. He struck out six men, but was found more than he should have been. In fact except for the superior fielding of the Torontos, a solitary error being made by the new man Donald at third, the tale this morning would be one of def at from the last team in the field. It must not be imagined, however, that the Leafs played a poor game. On the contrary except in the one innings referred to they except the themselves. The base running on both sides was away off.
