MILLIONS MADE IN WHEAT

MANY INVESTORS MADE A PILE IN THE WHEAT MARKET.

W. W. Ogilvie is credited with making a round million, and every grain man in the city is from $200,000 to $300,000 richer.

Montreal, May 31.—There are happy faces on 'Change these days, and your correspondent has been enabled to give the names of the men who have made their pile in the recent rise in flour and grain.

It is no secret that the chief of these is a man named W. W. Ogilvie, who has made more than a round million, while his neighbors, the Lake of the Woods people, Mr. Robert Melgen being the central figure, count their profits at $500,000.

Hugh McLellan had with others lost heavily in the past, but it is believed that he has recently netted him a profit of $150,000 at least.

Bob Edsall and his friend William Stewart of the Kingston Forwarding Company did not clear less than $75,000 each, while Alex. McPeck, in his wheat and corn deals, made not less than $100,000.

A. G. McBean had a good deal of wheat on the American market when the rise came, and of those who know, he may be said to have $100,000 ahead.

Crane & Baird have likewise, so rumors say, cleared at least $100,000, and all believe Harry Ingham to be from $75,000 to $100,000 richer to-day than he was two months ago.

Jake Hunsticker has made from $50,000 to $75,000 in flour if he has made a cent. Adam Thompson and Ewan McLennan are brokers, with a personal debt thrown in at times, and of those who are on the transactions of the last few weeks are estimated by careful men as having made from $50,000 to $75,000 each.

Jim Carruthers has cleared from $75,000 to $100,000, and Robert Peddie's profits on wheat, corn, and rye will exceed $75,000, and may possibly reach $100,000.

James Campbell, a dealer, and Ed Craig, a broker, have each made from $40,000 to $60,000, and are happy as the day is long.

Ex-Mayor McShane, who besides being a disgraced member of the Corn Exchange, is called "The People's Jimmy" outside counts his profits at $50,000.

J. L. Smith & Son had a big lot of flour on hand when the rise struck the flour, and consequently made $75,000.

Edgar Judge has made $50,000 on flour, and Geo. McLean & Co., who place the profits of R. E. Wight, a broker, are placed all the way from $40,000 to $50,000.

Besides these splendid results, wholesale dealers, dry-goods men, hardware men, and merchants, all have had their share of success.

It is safe to say, in fact, that many of them have cleared from $10,000 to $20,000, and the profits of the outsiders will foot up to half a million.

A good deal of money went out of Montreal during the last three years, but it will be seen from above that three or four million dollars have come back.

Hon. Thomas Greenway will not go to Ottawa previous to his return to Manitoba. Attorney-General Sifton has gone to New York, and the Premier will leave for Toronto to-morrow morning.

His stay in the Queen City will depend upon the state of the health of Premier Greenway, if anything but a well man, having taken cold since his arrival in Montreal.

Pardon Prosecaunt of Mr. St. Louis. The Department of Justice is going to throw good money after bad, as Chief Detective Sherwood obtained leave from the Police Court to-day, to prosecute Contractor St. Louis on a charge of falsifying $140,000 in connection with the Curran bridge contract.

Corrected/Reporting Held to Be Irrelevant. -When Hon. J. A. Oulmet took office the opposition to the Minister of Public Works was promoted to Laval by J. O. Pelland, advocate of Montreal. The former spoke very severely of Mr. Pelland, and was reported in The Star.

THREE HORSES ON HIM

The Police and Three Evermen Hunting for One Pooch, Who Has Stolen Three Hags.

The police are in search of a young man named Pooch, who resides with widowed mother at 117 Lansdowne-avenue, and if all reports be true, has a mania for horse stealing in a way peculiar to himself.

It appears that on Wednesday last he went to W. A. Ashford's livery stable, 728 Queen-street, west, and engaged a horse and buggy for the day. He subsequently traded his horse at a sale at the residence of the late Mrs. Doane's livery, 621 Yonge-street, and after an interview with Mr. Doane, during which it was stated that he was G. B. Smith, 463 College-street, bookkeeper, was allowed to take a valuable grey mare, and a Gladstone rig. As Pooch did not return on Thursday night, Mr. Doane became anxious for the welfare of his property and instituted a search.

He learned from a man employed by R. Joffin, undertaker, that on "Thurs" day afternoon Pooch had been seen in the vicinity of a delivery wagon, which contained two hags of hay. It is thought that he exchanged the grey mare for the two hags. This being the only trace to be had of him, the matter was reported to the police, a warrant issued for his arrest.

Pooch is a youth about 16 years of age, and is thought to be slightly demented. He is a stoutly built man, and is recognized by the absence of his front teeth.

Richard McLean of St. Clare-avenue, Toronto Junction, eloped Wednesday night with Mrs. McLean, wife of the late Wm. McLean, of Eglinton-street. Both men worked in the Queen City flour mill, and while his wife was at home he boarded with the late Wm. McLean and his wife. The elopement was effected in the middle of the night, and the man took with him a trunk containing a suit of clothes and a few personal effects. The woman is believed to have taken with her two children, the youngest aged two and the eldest ten. McLean's wife has one child, Edie. McLean and his wife are about 35 years of age. It is believed they have gone to Buffalo.

But they did not come for drill nor for tactics. What went they out for to see? Very few knew beforehand but at the first sight of the Canadian representative of the great Queen of England, whose birthday laid the day. That they were very favorably impressed by what they saw one is not to be wondered at.

TEN THOUSAND CHILDREN

GREET THE EARL AND COUNTESS OF ABERDEEN.

Arbor Day celebrated by a monster gathering at Forest Hill, the Earl and Countess of Aberdeen—Great Display of Bunting and Loyal Devices—Thousands of Parents Witness the Gathering.

Ten thousand youthful voices cheered till they could hear no more yesterday afternoon on being dressed in all their Sunday best and marched into the streets of the representatives of royalty. Sunday is taught in Toronto's public schools, but the occasions are rare for its demonstrative manifestation. Yesterday was a great and high day, one which children will never forget, nor the Earl and Countess of Aberdeen are likely soon to forget.

It was Arbor Day. This expression of the celebration. After being duly taught the wisdom, innate in trees and flowers, the duty of children to the conservation of the forest and the evils of laying reckless hands on what should be cherished and encouraged, the thousands of youngsters who were present were each and every one of them made to feel the importance of their respective schools and prepared for the day's long-promised event to hear their lord and lady of Aberdeen.

The weather was intensely hot for the month of the month, but the people didn't complain, save in a few cases of faintness and sickness, which met with all requisite attention. The great crowd had assembled in Queen-street-avenue, where they were in the presence of the Earl and Countess of Aberdeen.
