ARKONA ADVICES.

Why don't the dudes go west any more?
Got left.

McKay Bros., have got a new planet and mattress.

Mr. John Molland moved to Port Franks
last week.

Mr. Thomas moved into his fine new hotel
last week.

We are pleased to see our old friend Rev.
Mr. Johnson on a visit to Arkona.

Several of our well-to-do citizens talk of taking in the World's Fair at New Orleans this winter.

There must be some attraction on Wood Avenue, for people as far away as Theford seem interested there.

Our school board has advertised for two female teachers to take the place of Miss Davidson and Miss Moore.

Mr. N. George returned home on Tuesday from a short visit to friends in Michigan.
He reports times very quiet there.

Rev. Mr. Snyder was in Orangeville this week, officiating at the marriage of his sister Miss Nellie M. Snyder, to Mr. James Cutler of this place.

Messrs. Hullman and Stoner have completed the woodwork of Dr. Owen's new office in Learn's building, and the Dr. will occupy the office to-day.

Mr. Robt. Kells and Mr. Thomas Lagan have traded places, exchanged stock and swapped poultry. We will not undertake to decide who has the best bargain.

The Toronto Weekly News is what its name indicates—a "news" paper. It fairly bristles with news. The Weekly News, and the Advocate-Advertiser both for $1 a year.

Morningstar & Schooley have purchased a new Waterbury engine and expect it to arrive to-day. We give the above named firm great credit for their enterprise, and wish them every success.

R. Dunn & Son were never in a better position to turn out pumps and windmills.
They have on hand a large quantity of pump logs direct from Georgian Bay, and their prices are reasonable.

Rev. John Neelands, of Adelaide, will preach in the Arkona Methodist Church on Sunday next, morning and evening, and at St. Paul's in the afternoon. Rev. Mr. Snyder will go to Adelaide for the Sabbath.

Mr. Joseph Pickering has been re-engaged at an increased salary. Mr. Pickering has given the best of satisfaction since he began teaching here, and he has the name of being one of the best public school teachers in Lumbton.

Special services have commenced in Salem Methodist Church, Adelaide. The church is crowded at every service, and the work is becoming widespread and powerful. Rev.
Mr. Snyder and the Band from Arkona are conducting the meetings.

A large number of people from this place and vicinity attended the meeting called by Mr. Thomas Fawcett at Watford yesterday.

The appointment of A. Davidson, Esq., on the committee to examine the books of the estate, meets with general approval.

Mr. Benjamin Gott, of the Arkona Nurseries, shipped a basket containing 70 specimens of apples on Thursday to Mr. W. Saunders, of the agents of the New York Orleans Exposition. The fruit exhibited from Ontario promises to be unusually complete.

We regret to announce the death of Mrs.
Vester and Mrs. Hodder. Both ladies were advanced in years, and were noted for their industry, perseverance and bright christian characters, and we believe it will be said to them "Well done good and faithful servants enter into the joy of thy Lord."

The following is the report of the last monthly examination held in the first department of the Arkona Public School. The names of all pupils who obtained over 50% of the total marks are arranged in order of merit—

Fifth class—Lily Gair, Thos. Dunn, Lizzie Symons, Flora Abbott, Frank Eastman, Herb Eastman, Minnie Casselman, Rose, class—Alice Dunn, Mary Haigh, Geo. Barnes, John Black, Edmie McDonald, Thos. Robertson. Third class—Mabel Dunham, Lucy Jackson, Agnes Holmes, Aggie Cliff.

The annual fair for the purchase and sale of horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, etc., will be held in Arkona, on Tuesday, Nov. 25th, commencing at 9 o'clock. All the reliable buyers of the west have been notified to attend, and farmers will do well to bring all the stock they have to the fair and secure good prices. Special prizes for the best fat cow ($3) and heifer ($2) will be given by Mr.
Win. Thomas, our enterprising hotel keeper.

The following gentlemen constitute the committee on the part of Messrs. Robert Robertson, J. H. Hullman, David Hoy, Jas.
Russell and H. McAlpine.

The choir of the Arkona Methodist church, having purchased a large organ, will give the public a grand musical entertainment in the church on Wednesday evening, Dec.
3rd. Among those announced to take part we noticed the names of Prof. and Mrs.
Winlow Mr. Riggs and Miss Jackson, of London; Rev. Mr. Crews, Mr. Vail and Miss Hadden of Strathroy; Misses Morrison, of Forest. Several choruses will be rendered by a company of twenty-five voices. This will be the best entertainment ever given in Arkona, and no doubt the church will be well filled. Admission, 25 cents. Rev. Mr.
Snyder will sing the choir.

A correspondence article, and in the paragraph in your issue of the 14th inst., in reference to the parsonage of the late M. E. Church in this place. The statement is made that the committee appointed by the district meeting disposed of the question by deciding that the parsonage should belong to the Arkona Methodists by the payment of $700 to the Warwick circuit. Now, I am of the opinion that the meeting of the committee, and the decision also, is illegal, because it was not called according to the Methodist discipline. The London conference in June gave the property to the Warwick circuit, and surely a committee two steps lower cannot come and veto the power of the conference.
It is true the M. E. people did sell the parsonage to the Baptists of Arkona, and I believe there is no law of church or state that can take it from them. If the Methodist people are anxious for their pastor to spend the cold winter in the comfortable quarters now occupied by Rev. Mr. Wilhamson, the shortest and best way would be for them to purchase the parsonage from the Baptists.

WARWICK WAIFS.

Mr. James Dove, of Crowell, Mich., is visiting friends in Warwick.

Jonathan Hagle, of Chase, Mich., paid Birma a short visit last week.

Mark Hagle, of Columbusville, Mich., visited Birma friends last week.

Mr. Theodore Luckham, of Enniskillen, is visiting friends in this township.

Miss Jennie Menerey has returned from a visit to friends in Brockway, Mich.

Mr. McDonald, who has been quite ill for some time, is now able to be around.

The Maple Grove factory has disposed of their stock of cheese for twelve cents.

Miss Ella Eastman returned home on Saturday from a visit to friends in Cross-well, Michigan.

Mr. Nial M. Eastman has leased his father's farm at the point of the gore, for the term of five years.

It has been decided to hold the annual anniversary of the Bethel Sunday School on Wednesday evening, Dec. 24th.

The wife of Mr. J. Mama has been sick for some time. There seems to be a great deal of sickness just now, and a number of deaths have been reported in the vicinity.

Revival services will be shortly commenced in the Methodist Church, Warwick Sunday. Several leading members of the Hallelujah Band will assist the pastor.

Mrs. John O'Brien and Mrs. Gavigan have returned from a visit to Pennsylvania.
Mrs. Gavigan instead of placing her money in the bank as she had first intended, visited her sister whom she had not seen for forty years.

Mr. John I. Wylie, teacher in S. S. No.
5, intends giving an entertainment in his school on Friday evening, Dec. 5th. He has procured some of the best local talent available, and a good programme is promised.

What is meant by a Sabbath day's journey?
A certain young man says to the Grange Hall and back, Herb says down to twenty one mile and back in as far as he can get, but Gill goes to the Glen without any trouble.

Charles M. Barnes, Esq., of Forest, father of C. A. Barnes, J. P. S., of Forest, and Samuel D. and Joseph Barnes of Warwick, celebrated his 70th birthday at Forest on Tuesday last. The old gentleman is still hale and hearty.

We understand that the man living south of Arkona, who added to his family some time ago a widow and her two children, has a family sufficiently large to spare his blooming daughter. By the appearance of things Bob will be the lucky boy.

Willie Luckham, son of Mr. N. Luckham, did some pretty lively corn husking the other day. In three hours he succeeded in husking twenty bushels. It there is another little boy in the county that can beat this, we would like to hear from him.

We understand that Mr. I. A. Patrick has given up his position as teacher in S. S.
Nos. 14 and 20 Warwick and Bosanquet.
He says he does not dread leaving his pupils but he seems to have an attraction in Arkona; at any rate, he goes a short distance east of Ticknor's jewelry store occasionally.

We regret to learn that Mrs. A. Gifford, of Bosanquet, grand-daughter of Luke Hagle, of Forest, died at her husband's residence on Tuesday, the 18th. The funeral took place yesterday and was largely attended. Deceased leaves a kind husband and three young children to mourn her loss.

We see Mr. Gillis admits that he has not read the Bible, and that he has as far as he has studied them. If Mr.
Hagle would pay Saurkraut a visit he would gladly instruct him in how to fulfil the scripture commands: as it is required for us to be courageous of heart, and hearers of the word, and doers of the word. See James, chap. ii, verse xxii.

The greatest interest is manifested in the special services now going on at the Providence Church. The church is nightly crowded to the doors by an earnest and attentive congregation, and over sixty have expressed a change of heart. The revival is conducted by the Rev. W. H. Shaw, pastor of the church, assisted by members of the Hallelujah Band.

O'Brien Atkinson, of Port Huron, and Col. John Atkinson, of Detroit, both old Warwick boys, were candidates for Congress at the recent U. S. elections. The two brothers were life-long Democrats until this election, when they swung over to the Republicans. Now that the Democrats are victorious after twenty-four years of defeat, they feel like kicking themselves clean across to Canada.

Dugald McIntyre has returned from Manitoba.

Rev. Jamieson, com. 6, died on Sunday last of cancer.

On their way home from Ebenezer church some of the lake road young men have the benefit of a series of lessons on courtship from old Ben. If they have to follow their sweat-hearts at the same speed as he has, they will become paucers before husbands.

THEFORD.

Miss Lottie Holmes, of Goderich, is visiting in town at the residence of her brother, Harry Holmes.

Miss Simpson, of Guelph, well known by most of our town ladies, was visiting here last week.

The old band stand, for a number of years an eye-sore to our villagers, has been torn down and carted away.

Geo. McKay, son of John McKay, has returned to town from Michigan, where he is studying for the ministry. He is suffering from consumption.

J. H. Powell, operator at the station, went to Toronto last week to have a month's recreation. Mr. Thompson is relieving "Bert" at the station.

Frank Rose has returned to town and is resuming his former position at the station as day operator. The station at Blackwell, where Frank was placed as agent, has been closed.

What with the Hallelujah Band, Free Methodists and Salvation Army, our town is nearly "besieged." The number to be seen on our streets nightly wending their foot steps to these places of worship is surprising. It would lead one to ask, "Where do they all come from?"

For some time since it has been rumored that the station here would be closed every night, and that the operator would be dismissed. I am glad to announce that no such change is contemplated by the railway authorities. Theford station is still an important one to be closed nights.

X. S. Cornell returned from the Northwest on Tuesday, looking hale and hearty.
He gives a good report of the productiveness of that Country. He intends returning there after a short time.

Miss Lou Crookenden, of this village, was in attendance at the Sarata High School, and at the July examinations was awarded an Intermediate certificate. She appealed against the decision of the Board of Examiners and secured a third class certificate. She is now in attendance at the Model School in Forest.

A MOTHER'S DREAD.

The Wonderful Histrionic Development of a Famous Child Actress.

Chicago World.

The New York public was surprised a few years ago at the arrest, at the instigation of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, of little Corinne, the child actress. The little girl, less than eight years old, was taken from her parents and kept in confinement until released by order of the court and Mayor of the city. Mrs. Jennie Kimball, the mother of Corinne, who has been known to the public for many years as vocalist and comedienne, has devoted the greatest care to the training and education of Corinne, and the result is a development of natural faculties really phenomenal.

"When did you discover Corinne's remarkable talent?" was asked of Mrs. Kimball.

"I can hardly remember the time when her eyes would not sparkle at the sound of music; she began to sing before she could talk. Before she was four years old she created a sensation and received the prize of a gold chain and locket, studded with diamonds, at the National baby show in Boston.
Next she sang in a concert given by Brown's Brigade Band, and in 1874 made her debut as Little Buttercup in the Juvenile Pinafore Company. Since then she has sung in opera and played various roles nearly everywhere."

Mrs. Kimball is a lady of fine presence, and when playing at the Boston Museum, was herself known as "Little Jennie Kimball."

"What has become of the little lady?" asked the reporter.

"She has given place to the person you see before you. Like so many others I have grown somewhat fleshy. Indeed I assumed such proportions that I began to fear for my health. Why, at times I would have the most suffocating sensation in my heart; then again my head would be attacked and I have frequently fallen to the floor in a dead fainting fit. I consulted several eminent physicians and they told me I must abandon the stage if I expected or hoped to live. This seemed terrible, for I am a devoted busy profession and also to the development of Corinne."

"And yet you appear perfectly strong?"

"And so I am. Why, I have reduced my weight over twenty pounds within three months and I never felt better in my life. If any who are troubled as I was questions this let them try Warner's safe cure, the remedy I used, and they will, I am sure, be speedily convincing of its truth. I believe it is the finest medicine in the world, any number of my friends, to whom I have recommended it have found it as beneficial as it has been to me."

"Is Corinne's health good?"

"Perfect. The child has so much life and vivacity she is overflowing with it, on and off the stage."

The only previous instance of such remarkable precocity which history chronicles is that of the famous Peg Woffington, who first appeared in "The Beggar Opera," when but a little older than Corinne.
