McLeod.-Ottawa Despatch. WARREN J. MILLER. Major Weeks, of Charlottetown, or Friday received a telegram from San death of Warren J. Miller, formerly one of the prominent business men Halifax, and founder of the business now conducted under the firm name of Miller Brothers. The deceased gentle man, in addition to his business activ ity, was an active and useful member the First Methodist Church of Halifax, for many years filling various official positions in connection therewith. He was fifty-two years of age at the ime of his death. About fifteen years ago he became subject to muscular heumatism, and went for treatment at various times to Bermuda, Arizona Hot Springs and Colorado, but without obtaining permanent relief. He etired from business about ten years ago and removed to California, where remained until his death. Besides and Miss Weeks, of Halifax, he leaves two sons, Louis and Harold, and three younger daughters, Celia, Maud and Leta, all at home in Dan Diego. Mr. L. R. AVARD HALL.

Capt. Edwin C. Hall, of Port Lorne, was called to St. John by telegram, Brookfield, Queens Co., are visiting Friday, the 8th, saying that his brother Avard had been killed by a fall on a steamer at that port. Mr. Hall was stevedoring a cargo on steamer Manchester City, and was struck by a ling containing pease, knocked into the old, a distance of about thirty feet, reaking all of his ribs on right side and crushing into his right lung. After the fall he climbed the ladder to the wharf, saying that he was not proving the good hauling in getting hurt, walked into the office on the wharf, lay down on a couch, and was soon suffering intense pain and helplessness. He asked to be sent to the hos pital and an ambulance was immedately called for to convey him there. The doctors, on examination, told him he could not live, and the sufferer asked that his wife be brought to his side. On her arrival he expressed a wish that his body be buried in Carleton, where his family reside. He lived intil Friday at about 2 p. m., having suffered twenty-eight hours. Mr. Hal was a native of St. Croix, Annapolis ific coast, six of which he was master of a steamer of the Puget Sound & Alaska S. S. Co. Came east to the World's Fair at Chicago and from there to St. John and since that time has been sailing vessels for N. C. Scott and others. A few years ago he joined the Baptist church. Was forty years of age, and leaves a wife and four small children. Too much praise cannot be given the Forresters' Court "Onangondy, ' of which he was a member. At the time whentit appeared certain that the Clallam would founder a desperate effort was made to save the women and alldren in the life boats. They were laced in the first boat to leave the ship. Capt. Lawrence, a Yukon pilot, was manned by deckhands. The frail craft went down in sight of the Clallam, and a second life boat, filled with Second Officer Currin, was probably lost a few minutes later. The total number of saved is 36. Among those lost were Mrs. Charles Lawrence, master of the steamer Sco tia, and well known as a sealing skipper during years past, was from the Maritime Provinces, and R. G. Campbell, the Seattle timber cruiser, was a native of Lunenburg (N. S.), Nathaniel P. Shaw, was head of a Dawson-Victoria cattle firm, and son-in-law of Charles H. Lugrin, Fredericton (N. B.)
