to and including Monday she had sailed nine races in two weeks, and had won them all, two being against the Valkyrie and seven against the Valkyrie's conqueror in the America cup matches, the Vigilant. It is interesting to note that the Britannia and Valkyrie sailed 19 races against each other, the former winning nine by the average time of 8 min. 36 2-3 seconds, and the latter 10 by the average time of 14 min. 39 2-5 seconds. In the America cup competition off New York the Vigilant beat the Valkyrie three times by an average of 5 min. 41 seconds, and now the Britannia has turned round and defeated the Vigilant seven times in succession by an average of 8 min. 33 secs. Six of the Britannia-Vigilant races were sailed on the Clyde, and the seventh off the coast of Ireland, just above Belfast. Lord Dunraven's yacht Valkyrie, which was sunk in the Clyde through a collision with the Satanita on the first day the Britannia competed, has been raised, but will not be raced again. His lordship has given Designer Watson an order for another boat on the same lines but a trifle smaller. She is to be eligible for the seventy-foot class and will probably sail for the America's cup next year.

The International Field Tournament took place on the Queen's Club grounds, West Kensington, on the 16th inst., between the champions of Oxford and Yale Universities. C. Oxford thus won by 54 points to 34. In the evening the Sports' Club entertainned the Yale and Oxford teams at dinner. Besides the teams there were 130 guests, most of them men of distinction. Sir Richard Webster, formerly Attorney-General, presided. United States Ambassador Bayard sat at his right hand, Sir John Astley at the left, and the two teams following side by side. Among the others present were the pre sidents and secretaries of the Oxford and Cambridge and other athletic associations. After the company with prolonged en-thusiasm, had to sted the Queen. President Cleveland, the Prince of Wales and other members of the Royal family, Sir Richard Webster presented medals to the successful athletes.

THE Vigilant and Britannia met for the eighth time on Tuesday. A gale of wind was blowing and the Vigilant led all the way. The Britannia carried away some of her tackle when the Vigilant was 6 minutes ahead and retired from the race-

LADY MARGARET SCOTT is again English golf champion. She retained the place she won last year by defeating Miss Pearson by 3 up and 2 to play in the final round, at the recently contested ladies' championship at Littlestone. Much interest is taken in the forthcoming pro-fessional championship to be played at Sandwich

THE Athletes who were sent over from Yale College to compete with the English Collegians got into trouble in London by celebrating the 4th of July in a too boist erous manner. They set off fireworks on the streets and did a few other equally shocking things before they were hauled off to jail. For their fun they were taxed the costs of the trial.

Overon beat Cambridge at Lord's eight wickets, on July 2nd, 3rd and 4th the best win they have had since 1877. Since the institution of the contest the Light Blues have won on 30 occasions to Oxford's 27, while only three games have been left unfinished. During the three days 20,900 people paid for admission, and it is estimated that with members 37,000 attended. The scores were: Ox-ford, 338 and 88 for two wickets; Cambridge, 222 and 200.

The annual Hamburg regatta opened Berlin on July 14th. Some ill-feeling at Berlin on July 14th. was caused by the Berlin crews protesting against the Thames Club crew, because the latter was said to have brought over a professional who had rowed for money orizes in both France and England. fact was that the member in question, G. McHenry, had rowed bow with the Thames Club crew in the last Henley re-gatta, and had won the Steward's Cup. The English crew protested that this did not make him a professional, but the Regatta Committee supported the Berlin crews, and McHenry was replaced by G. G. Taylor. The English crew was defeated.
