Subjects for Prayer.

The Extinction of the Liquor and Opium Traffics, and all obnoxious hindrances to Christianity.

NOTE.—In view of the approaching Plebiscite vote, the Literature Committee thought it advisable to put the subject of the Liquor and Opium Traffic in the month of June instead of July, as many of the Auxiliaries do not meet in July.

AZABU, TOKYO, April 14th, 1898.

Kubo San, the Bible-woman (who has been supported for many years by Mrs. Dr. Eccles, of London), has had to go into Dr. Whitney's hospital to have an operation on her eyes. I went over to see her yesterday, and found her very happy and contented with her surroundings. Miss Harrison (the head nurse) told me that Kubo San uses every
