

THE SUM OF HUMAN KNOWLEDGE

The Genuine . . .
. . . Werner Encyclopædia Britannica

Now within Reasonable Reach of any Purse

 The Edition of 1900

FOR the past nine months a corps of editors has been at work revising the Supplement to the Britannica and there is now ready for delivery an entirely new edition, which is superior to anything on the market.

The five volumes of Supplement double the value of the 9th edition of the Britannica, BECAUSE this Supplement is UP-TO-DATE.

The Contributions to the Supplement are not only fully equal in character to the original but are of MUCH MORE PRACTICAL VALUE.

All Arts, all Sciences, all Literatures, all Religions, completely and systematically treated. It is to-day what it has been for a century and a quarter—the Standard Reference Library of the world.

Thirty superb octavo volumes, with over 12,000 illustrations; 340 full-page engraved plates; nearly 25,000 pages; 671 new maps and plans.

THE GREATEST—THE BEST—THE CHEAPEST.

The Editor of THE TEACHERS' MONTHLY says in the January, 1900, issue: "There is no other one book that for extent and variety of information compares with the ENCYCLOPÆDIA BRITANNICA. . . The new Werner edition offered for sale on special terms by The News Educational Department, 96 Yonge St., Toronto, extends to 30 volumes, being an addition of five supplementary volumes to the 25 of the Edinburgh edition (9th edition). The supplementary volumes treat at length of such new subjects as Color Photography, The Roentgen Rays, Modern Surgery, Weather Forecasts, Labor Organizations. The edition is on good paper, well printed and well bound. The maps and illustrations, of which there are over 12,000, are in keeping with the general style of the book. It will be well worth the while of our readers to make enquiry as to price. Possibly in no other way can teachers or families become possessed of so extensive a library at so cheap a rate."

Charles Spurgeon said, in recommending the BRITANNICA: "If all other books were destroyed, the Bible alone excepted, the world would have lost but little of its information."

"To own a set of the ENCYCLOPÆDIA BRITANNICA is to acknowledge one's self as recognizing the best there is in literature."—Gladstone.

A necessity—not a luxury—to every live, progressive Sabbath-School superintendent, teacher and scholar.

Call for particulars or write to
A limited number of sets to readers of this magazine at a bargain. $1 down and 10c a day will secure a set.

THE NEWS, Educational Department, 96 Yonge St., Toronto, Canada