

Contemporary Church Opinion.

Church Bells, London, (6th Oct. : The consolidation of the Church in the great Dominion of Canada from ocean to ocean has thus been accomplished. The change has apparently been brought about with the hearty goodwill of everybody concerned. It may almost be said that there has been no voice raised against it. The occasion was a crisis in the history of the Canadian Church, and the step which has been taken may well fill the minds of Canadian Churchmen with visions of a grand future for their Church, but its realization will, under God's guidance, depend mainly upon themselves. The Church in the Dominion was a collection of scattered fragments without unity and without a common aim. These have been seemingly firmly welded together, and it is now one great organic entity, with one voice from the Atlantic to the Pacific. The change from the old order is indeed a great one and its results should be great also. The forward, onward movement of which it is the visible sign must continue its course with an ever-quickening motion, and the fulness of life within the Church must increase in proportion to the work which God has laid upon it. The little one has already become a thousand, the thousand have now to multiply themselves ten thousand-fold.

Physicians in cholera districts state that where there is no indigestion there will be no cholera. K. D. C. will cure your indigestion and make you cholera-proof.

Popular Story of The Church of England.

Showing its Birth, its Progress and its Work for the People, with illustrations.

Price Six Pence, or Bound in Cloth, One Shilling.

The large demand for this "Story" has necessitated the issue of a NEW EDITION. The book has been revised, and the statistics made up to the moment of going to press. In order to make its pages yet more attractive, some excellent views of Cathedrals and Churches have been added, and those who have not yet done so may be glad to distribute it as an antidote to the anti-Church literature which is now being so largely circulated in all parts of the Kingdom, in view of the coming attack upon our Church. Nearly all the Bishops have signified their warm approval of the "Story." The late Archbishop Magee commended it in these words: "It gives in a condensed and popular form one of the best statements of the past history and present work of the Church with which I am acquainted. It seems to me especially suited for distribution amongst our intelligent working classes, who need just such a corrective to the false and misleading statements now so industriously circulated amongst them by the enemies of our Church."

Favorably Reviewed by nearly one hundred newspapers.
