

fraction" from the militia of the State, has excited the worst feeling. Almost every uniformed Company in the State has one or more worthy members affected by the remarks of the Governor. Col. J. Durrell Greene, of the 4th Regiment of Light Infantry, one of the first regiments of the State, has resigned his command. Col. Boyd, a deservedly popular officer, has already resigned, and we hear of other resignations which may probably follow.

EXTENSIVE EMIGRATION SCHEME.—We have information from a quarter whence the truth may be expected to proceed, that it is in contemplation to establish emigration societies on a very extended scale, in the large cities and towns in this commonwealth, among the foreign population, for the purpose of mutually aiding each other to emigrate to Canada or the great West, as the parties may themselves decide. In this manner it is contemplated to reduce the number of Roman Catholic residents at least one-half, within a brief space of time; and the design, of course, will first move the most useful among that portion of our population. We have no direct information of any public steps having been taken to consummate the scheme; but the principles on which it is to be carried out are being discussed, and the project will probably be perfected. —Boston Traveller.

CRIMINALS FROM EUROPE.—The N. Y. Tribune says: "It was recently announced in the columns of the Tribune, among other intelligence from Europe, that the Sardinian frigate Degenes was about to sail from Genoa for this port, bringing thirty-four political refugees, from whose presence the Piedmontese Government thought proper to be freed. We have since then received information from a private source which we know to be worthy of the highest confidence, to the effect that the thirty-four persons in question are not mere political offenders, but are convicted criminals of the most dangerous description, taken from the prisons of that country. We are confident that this notice will receive from the Major of the City the attention it deserves, and we trust the Government at Washington will also interpose its authority to prevent the landing of any known foreign criminals upon our soil.

THE FAT LADY.—AN EXCITING SCENE.—Yesterday, a writ was placed in the hands of the sheriff to arrest the "Fat Woman," Miss Rosina Richardson, on complaint of the Swiss warbler, for slander; a remark, said to have been carelessly made last summer, being considered of vast importance since the lady's engagement at the Columbia Museum. It was placed in the hands of Geo. K. Wise, Deputy. Mr. Wise went up to the Columbia Museum to execute his writ, and was there met by her counsel, De Witt C. Morris Esq., who, in reply to what arrangement was to be made, replied, "Execute your writ." Mr. Wise took a survey all around the "prodigy" of creation, and finally very gallantly told the lady his errand. She very deliberately replied, "Very well; I am ready to go; take me." Here was a fix. George acknowledged himself cornered; said he would postpone the arrest till 2 1/2 o'clock. Even a Sheriff could not arrest and carry such a pile. At 2 1/2 o'clock, Sheriff Allen himself, with a posse of some twenty-five men, and a big furniture wagon, marched solemnly up to the place of conflict, and was there met with the same serenity and answered by the lady, "Take me." It must be known that Sheriff Allen would not himself brag of more than 150 pounds, and when met by this calm intonation, "take me," looked a good deal horrified. He surveyed the eight hundred pounds of female humanity from every point of observation; and finally, coming to the conclusion that he had not machinery and power enough to make the arrest, and remove the victim, postponed the arrest till to-day at 3 o'clock, when he is bound to bring force enough to carry her and her fat sister (of equal weight) along with her, if necessary. We anticipate an amusing scene at the Columbia Museum to-day. —Philadelphia N. Am. Thursday.

WE THINK WE ARE JUSTIFIED IN SAYING,
That no other Pill, or remedy for Liver Complaint, has gained, so deservedly, the reputation now enjoyed by Dr. M'LANE'S Celebrated Liver Pills. As an evidence that they will cure, read the following certificate from a lady residing in our own city.

New York, January 23, 1852.
This is to certify that I have had the liver complaint for six years, and never could get any medicine to help me until I commenced using DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS. I can now say to the public, that they have completely cured me; and I do hereby recommend them to all persons afflicted with a diseased liver. THEY WILL CURE. TRY THEM.

MARIA EVANS, No. 93 Lewis street.
P. S. The above valuable remedy, also Dr. M'LANE'S Celebrated Vermifuge, can now be had at all respectable Drug-Stores in this city.

Purchasers will please be careful to ask for, and take none but DR. M'LANE'S LIVER PILLS. There are other Pills, purporting to be Liver Pills, now before the public.

The author of this work (Mr. Shea) has made History his particular study. He has produced a History which Catholics can safely place in the hands of their children without fear of meeting the usual lies against Catholics and their Religion, which form part of most of the School Histories published.

We have spared no expense in the getting up of the work, and we have no hesitation in saying that it is the best as well as the cheapest elementary History for Catholic Schools published.
