man at all if he does not ultimately plan to be. Should his plans thus miscarry, there are even then few really better, safer, long line investments than a good life insurance policy. The holding of such an investment makes a man a better citizen in every way; gives him something more than a hireling's interest in the world of affairs; makes of him something more than a social parasite to be blown off by the first adverse gale and be trodden under the leaden heel of fate.—Toledo Times.
