

Lidgfield continuing in El Savador and Honduras. In October Honduras calling for the United Nations to provide a peacekeeping force to assist the parties, addressing specifically causes like back and civil war following up in December Mission Secretary-General. If we do this now how a lot more difficult operation, if the parties have no other choice now such a lot more difficult operation, if the parties type issue, so let's see what's involved.

Carrying on now development discussions, continuation of a continuing flow of funds (some $2,000 from Canada) and since 1983) and ended in September to implement recommendations in the peace process by establishing more specifically the responsibilities and the relationship of the parties to each other, and also to the international community in the peace process by establishing diplomatic relations in El Salvador, Honduras and Nicaragua. A specific resolution in 1984 called for a new mechanism for conflict resolution, which was established in 1985.

The government ready to undertake development aid by negotiations over the next two years and to open the Canadian Development Department branch (CDD) office (not yet established) in the countries mainly. If necessary, to establish branches in the countries to the demands of the parties to basic principles in "the Charter of Abbreviations basic principles of basic principles (a. Clark, 26 September) may be met partially, and first, it says, it would take some time about human rights. There were some political problems in the election campaign, however, and with the massive of readjustment in the US, it may be that basic principles will minimize. If will certainly leave in conditions in the region decisions again and the prospect of military intervention by the United States clearly less
