

Trade Commissioners usually spend two-thirds of their careers abroad. Headquarters assignments in Ottawa can be in policy formation, a geographic division or in a specialized area of trade development. There may also be opportunities for assignments of one to three years in a regional International Trade Centre elsewhere in Canada.

As a Trade Commissioner you can help develop Canada's potential as a world trader.

MADE IN CANADA—FOR EXPORT
WORLDWIDE

