ARTICLE XIII

Surrender of Person to be Extradited

 The Requested Party shall, as soon as a decision on the request for extradition has been made, communicate that decision to the Requesting Party.
Reasons shall be given for any complete or partial rejection of an extradition request.

2. When extradition of a person for an offence is granted, that person shall be surrendered at a point of departure in the territory of the Requested Party convenient to both Parties.

3. The Requesting Party shall remove the person from the territory of the Requested Party within such reasonable period as the Requested Party specifies. If the person is not removed within that period, the Requested Party may refuse to grant extradition for the same offence.

4. If circumstances beyond its control prevent a Party from surrendering or removing the person to be extradited, it shall notify the other Party. The Parties shall agree upon a new period of time for surrender, and the provisions of paragraph 3 of this Article shall apply.

raisonnable indiqué par la Parcie requise. El la persona réalamée a'est par amenée bars du territolre de la Farti requise dans ce délair, la Partie requise peut refuser d'eccorése l'extradicion pour la séna infraction.