

(3) The Requested State shall have the authority and the obligation to keep the person transferred in custody, unless otherwise authorized by the Requested State, in which case that person shall be treated as a person present in the Requesting State pursuant to Article 8.

(4) The person transferred shall receive credit for service of the sentence imposed in the Requested State for the time served in custody in the Requesting State.

ARTICLE 11

SAFE CONDUCT

(1) Subject to Article 10 paragraph 3, a person present in the Requesting State in response to a request seeking that person's attendance shall not be prosecuted, detained or subjected to any other restriction of personal liberty in that State for any acts or omissions which preceded that person's departure from the Requested State, nor shall that person be obliged to give evidence in any proceeding other than the proceedings to which the request relates.

(2) Paragraph 1 of this Article shall cease to apply if a person, being free to leave the Requesting State, has not left it within a period of thirty days after being officially notified that the person's attendance is no longer required, or having left the territory, has voluntarily returned.

(3) Any person who fails to appear in the Requesting State may not be subjected to any sanction or compulsory measure in the Requested State.
