

(2) The requested Party shall surrender the person sought to the appropriate authorities of the requesting Party at a mutually convenient location in the jurisdiction of the requested Party.

(3) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (4) of this Article, if the requesting Party does not take custody of the person claimed on the date agreed by the Parties, the person shall be released on the expiry of thirty days thereafter and the requested Party may subsequently refuse to surrender that person for the same offence.

(4) If circumstances beyond its control prevent a Party from surrendering or taking over the person to be surrendered, it shall notify the other Party. In that case the Parties shall agree a new date for surrender and the provisions of paragraph (3) of this Article shall apply.

ARTICLE 16

Surrender of Property

(1) To the extent permitted under the law of the requested Party, when a request for surrender of a fugitive offender is granted, the requested Party:

(a) shall hand over to the requesting Party all articles, including sums of money,

(i) which may serve as proof of the offence;
or
