

The first part of the document is a letter from the Secretary of the State Department to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior. The letter is dated October 10, 1906, and is addressed to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Washington, D.C. The letter is signed by the Secretary of the State Department, John Hay.

The letter discusses the proposed acquisition of the land in the State of California, and the proposed acquisition of the land in the State of California. The letter is signed by the Secretary of the State Department, John Hay.

The second part of the document is a letter from the Secretary of the State Department to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior. The letter is dated October 10, 1906, and is addressed to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Washington, D.C. The letter is signed by the Secretary of the State Department, John Hay.

The letter discusses the proposed acquisition of the land in the State of California, and the proposed acquisition of the land in the State of California. The letter is signed by the Secretary of the State Department, John Hay.

The third part of the document is a letter from the Secretary of the State Department to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior. The letter is dated October 10, 1906, and is addressed to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Washington, D.C. The letter is signed by the Secretary of the State Department, John Hay.

The letter discusses the proposed acquisition of the land in the State of California, and the proposed acquisition of the land in the State of California. The letter is signed by the Secretary of the State Department, John Hay.

The fourth part of the document is a letter from the Secretary of the State Department to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior. The letter is dated October 10, 1906, and is addressed to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Washington, D.C. The letter is signed by the Secretary of the State Department, John Hay.

The letter discusses the proposed acquisition of the land in the State of California, and the proposed acquisition of the land in the State of California. The letter is signed by the Secretary of the State Department, John Hay.