

ORDER OF REFERENCE

The following reference is made to the report of the Committee on the Administration of the Government, presented to the House of Commons on the 11th March 1954, in which it is stated that the Committee have considered the report of the Commission on the Administration of the Government, presented to the House of Commons on the 11th March 1954, and have agreed to refer the following questions to the Committee on the Administration of the Government for their consideration:

1. The Commission on the Administration of the Government has recommended that the Secretary of State for the Home Department should be empowered to appoint and dismiss the members of the Civil Service Commission and to determine their terms of office. It is suggested that the Commission should be empowered to recommend the appointment and dismissal of the members of the Civil Service Commission and to determine their terms of office. It is suggested that the Commission should be empowered to recommend the appointment and dismissal of the members of the Civil Service Commission and to determine their terms of office.

2. The Commission on the Administration of the Government has recommended that the Secretary of State for the Home Department should be empowered to appoint and
dismiss the members of the Civil Service Commission
and to determine their terms of office. It is suggested that the Commission should be empowered to recommend
the appointment and dismissal of the members of the Civil Service Commission and to determine their terms of office. It is suggested that the Commission should be empowered to recommend the appointment and dismissal
of the members of the Civil Service Commission and to determine their terms of office.

3. The Commission on the Administration of the Government has recommended that the Secretary of State for the Home Department should be empowered to appoint and
dismiss the members of the Civil Service Commission
and to determine their terms of office. It is suggested that the Commission should be empowered to recommend
the appointment and dismissal of the members of the Civil Service Commission and to determine their terms of office. It is suggested that the Commission should be empowered to recommend the appointment and dismissal
of the members of the Civil Service Commission and to determine their terms of office.

4. The Commission on the Administration of the Government has recommended that the Secretary of State for the Home Department should be empowered to appoint and
dismiss the members of the Civil Service Commission
and to determine their terms of office. It is suggested that the Commission should be empowered to recommend
the appointment and dismissal of the members of the Civil Service Commission and to determine their terms of office. It is suggested that the Commission should be empowered to recommend the appointment and dismissal
of the members of the Civil Service Commission and to determine their terms of office.