BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

EASTER ADJOURNMENT

Right Hon. W. L. MACKENZIE KING (Prime Minister) moved:

That the resolution adopted on Monday the 24th of March, 1941, respecting the Easter adjournment, be rescinded, and that when the house adjourns on Tuesday next it stand adjourned until Monday, the 28th of April instant.

He said: On Friday last I had a word with my hon. friend the leader of the opposition (Mr. Hanson) and with the leaders of the Cooperative Commonwealth Federation and Social Credit groups, and we were all of the opinion that as on Wednesday the house would sit for only half the day, it would perhaps suit the convenience of all hon. members if when we conclude proceedings on Tuesday we were then to adjourn for the Easter vacation instead of adjourning on Wednesday.

Mr. HOMUTH: Will that be at six o'clock?

Mr. MACKENZIE KING: Well, we will hope so, but I cannot say.

Motion agreed to.
