

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

Mr. Churchill: Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask the acting house leader for the order of business for tomorrow. We know the business for Friday and next Monday and Tuesday. If he mentions interim supply would he indicate the period of time for which interim supply is being asked?

Mr. MacNaught: Tomorrow, Mr. Speaker, the first item of business will be the consideration of interim supply for one month.

Business of the House

Then we will go on with the second reading of the bill to amend the Bank Act and the Quebec Savings Banks Act. Then we will resume debate on second reading of Bill No. S-17, respecting the territorial sea and fishing zones of Canada. If there is any time left we will consider the resolutions preceding the Export Credits Insurance Act and the Farm Credit Act.

At six o'clock the house adjourned, without question put, pursuant to standing order.
