3 and 4. Permanent residents of Canada are not required to report their whereabouts or movements to the Department, hence the Department does not compile the kind of data required to reply to these questions.

INDIAN AFFAIRS AND NORTHERN DEVELOPMENT—APPROACH AND ACTION OF CERTAIN PERSONS

Question No. 653—Mr. Howard (Skeena):

Has any attempt been made to identify the person or persons in the employ of the Department of Indian Affairs and Northern Development who engaged in an approach termed "insidious" by the Crockett Writers Company in its quarterly report for the period ending March 31, 1969 to the Department of Indian Affairs and Northern Development and which approach involved "Xerox" processing and the distribution of copies of a contract marked "confidential" and, if so, what is the name and position held by each such person?

Mr. Russell C. Honey (Parliamentary Secretary to Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development): 1. Yes, an investigation into Crockett Writers allegations was launched when their report was submitted and appropriate steps were taken to ensure that the firm receive the cooperation it required to perform the duties as outlined in the terms of the contract. Xerox copies of the contract were sent to all regional offices to ensure cooperation with the firm.

INDIAN AFFAIRS AND NORTHERN DEVELOPMENT—CO-OPERATION IN IMPROVING IMAGE

Question No. 654—Mr. Howard (Skeena):

Has any attempt been made to find the identity of the persons referred to in the Quarterly Report for the period ending March 31, 1969 by Crockett Writers Company to the Department of Indian Affairs and Northern Development as being "some department heads who will never co-operate with us in trying to improve the image of the Branch" and, if so, what is the name and position held by each such person?

Mr. Russell C. Honey (Parliamentary Secretary to Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development): 1. Yes, as mentioned in the reply to Question No. 653 appropriate steps have been taken to ensure that the firm receives the cooperation it requires to fulfil the terms of the contract. It would not, however, be in the public interest to divulge names.
