Government Orders

Mr. Clark (Brandon—Souris): Mr. Speaker, a point of order. If I heard you correctly, you have not yet addressed government Motion No. 34.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Paproski): Once the vote is taken on Motion No. 32, we will take it on Motion No. 34. We cannot do it until we have taken the vote on 32 and 33. Therefore, we cannot take it on 34. We will do that later on today. It that clear for the hon. member?

Mr. Clark (Brandon—Souris): As always, Mr. Speaker, your words of advice are both clear and acceptable.

Mr. Redway: Mr. Speaker, on a point of order. I believe there is agreement that the votes will be deferred until three o'clock today.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Paproski): Is it agreed?

Some hon. members: Agreed.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Paproski): Agreed and so ordered. The vote will take place at three o'clock this afternoon on the deferred divisions.

WILD ANIMAL AND PLANT PROTECTION ACT

MEASURE TO ENACT

Hon. Frank Oberle (for the Minister of the Environment) moved that Bill C-42, an act respecting the protection of certain species of wild animals and plants, be now read the second time and referred to Legislative Committee C.

Mr. Lee Clark (Parliamentary Secretary to Minister of the Environment): Mr. Speaker, I would like to begin by saying that it is a pleasure for me to be able to speak to the House today by way of introduction of second reading of Bill C-42, an act respecting the protection of certain species of wild animals and plants.

This is very important legislation which certainly has the attention of the nation, as is evidenced by the amount of mail which I have received. It is a bill which I am pleased is now before us for second reading debate.

Mr. Speaker, as you may recall, in 1987 the Government of Canada sponsored a major international conference here in Ottawa, the Sixth Conference of the Parties to the Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species.

The present Minister of State for the Environment had the honour of presenting the welcoming address at
