

Resuming the debate on the motion of the Honourable Senator Croll, seconded by the Honourable Senator Robertson:

That the Senate recommends to the Government of Canada and to individuals and organizations in Canada that, in honour of the senior citizens of this country, the last complete week of August of this year and of each and every year thereafter, be kept and observed throughout Canada as "Senior Citizens' Week" as a way of paying tribute to the diverse contributions being made to Canada by the older citizens of our society.—(Honourable Senator Marshall).

Hon. Jack Marshall: Honourable senators, I adjourned this debate a couple of weeks ago, but I am willing to allow anyone who wants to speak to it to do so before I speak in about a week or so.

Order stands.

The Senate adjourned until tomorrow at 2 p.m.
