

appropriate, from every point of view, had she spoken or written to Dr. MacMillan. Certainly, the impression is everywhere that the M.R.T. were "running" this contest in Montreal; it is hard, I suppose, to disassociate Miss Allan in her personal capacity and Miss Allan of the Montreal Repertory Theatre.

However, I do not wish to pursue the subject any further.

With kindest regards,

I am,

Ever yours faithfully,

Principal