

June 10th, 1931.

Dean Ira MacKay,
Faculty of Arts,
McGill University.

Dear Dean MacKay,

Thank you for calling my attention to the letter of Mr. Sharp to Professor Sugars. We cannot afford to incur this sort of bad feeling, and I am taking steps to see that something is done to prevent it. The donors of all prizes and studentships should most certainly be invited to Convocation each year, as a matter of course.

Yours faithfully,

Principal