My dear General:-

I enclose herewith copy of letter which I have received from Mack Eastman, Professor of History in the University of B.C., which is self-explanatory. I have forwarded to you copy of "World Progress" as suggested by him.

I have read portions of it with considerable interest, but am not in a position to give an opinion as to whether it will be useful as a Text Book. There are a few inaccuracies that I have noted but, no doubt these will be corrected as he suggests, in the next edition.

If you have time, I am sure he would appreciate it very much if you would look over the book yourself or have one of your staff look it over, and let
