Montreal.

Dear Sir Herbert:-

I am enclosing herewith a draft of the proposed curriculum for a four year Commerce course at McGill.

The course now is one of three years but it has been felt that it is incomplete. This course, you will observe, clings largely to the fundamentals and cannot be regarded as tending to overspecialization. I would appreciate very much your opinion of it, and in order to get the reaction of the business world I am asking a few business men to dine with me next Thursday evening at 8 p.m. at the Mount Royal Club.

Yours faithfully,

Principal.
