

In acknowledging the vote of thanks, the Chairman stated that he had received a cablegram from London, England, conveying the good wishes of the League at home. He also read Mr. Rudyard Kipling's poem "Our Lady of the Snows," which was handed up to him by J. Ross Robertson, Esq., M.P., Toronto, who had had it cabled to him. It was received with great applause

The meeting then adjourned.

---