

TO ADVERTISERS.

☞ An advertisement in this programme catches the eye of the public at a time when they have leisure to read it, viz., between the acts.

☞ It is a well-known fact that the theatre-going public are the most liberal in expenditures, and, as a rule, are good buyers.

☞ Then again, the advertising rates are so cheap as to be within the reach of all.

HATS, HATS

FALL DERBY—The neatest, cheapest and best in the world for the price.

OPERA AND KNOCKABOUT Soft and Silk Hats at the factory of

J. TUNSTEAD & CO.

222 KING STREET EAST

Hats made to order without extra charge

SEAL MANTLES

Established 54 Years.

Established 54 Years.

LADIES' AND MEN'S FURS

OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.

BOAS, BOAS

MATTHEWS'

Livery and Boarding Stable

ESTABLISHED 45 YEARS.

Office and Barn 33 Market Street

Between Park and Bay Streets.
Telephone 62.

SHINE'S LEADING BARBER SHOP

7 McNab St. N.—Razors ground and honed

When the Curtain is down see what the Advertisers have to say.

GOOD MATERIALS, PERFECT SKILL,

Honest Work and Long Experience have built up a first-class reputation for

Slater

THE TAILOR

Examine his perfect assortment of Suits, Overcoatings and other fine cloths, ascertain his prices, leave your order, and be able to go forth among your fellow-men, holding your head up and conscious that there is nothing the matter with your appearance, and that your pocket-book has suffered only in the minimum.

NO. 54 KING STREET WEST.

Jimmie's Restaurant

4 KING ST. WEST.

Everything in connection with this establishment first-class in every particular.

Oysters in every style. Business lunch from 10 to 12 a. m.

JAMES McKEOWN, Proprietor

The public will please take note that the sale of seats for all performances at this theatre will hereafter commence at 9 a. m. and close at 5.30 p. m., sharp, at Nordheimer's music store.

BABY COMFORT

FOR COLIC, SOUR STOMACH, CRIPES, CHILDREN TEETHING, ETC.

SPARKS AND SPRAY.

—Read Morton's liners on this program.

—Ladies will find Hartley's oyster and lunch rooms to be first-class in every particular.

—Jones—Cleveland didn't get the presidency as a Christmas gift. Smith—No, but he got his stocking well filled. He put his foot in it.

—A Philadelphian man boasts that his wife is mistress of five tongues. The average man doesn't ask that his wife be mistress of more than one.

—At the minstrels—Mr. Fangle—Well, that's the richest lot of dry jokes I ever heard. Mrs. Fangle—Is that the reason you had to irrigate so often?

—Frenchman—Yes, Miss Bostonia, in the Mediterranean I sailed through schools of sardines. Miss Bostonia—Now could they swim in those heavy tin boxes?

—Everybody should see the artistic chromos now being presented by John A. Barr & Co. to their customers. Read adv. on second page.

—Agent—Has the religious press much of a showing in this community? Old citizen (in a whisper)—Well, the parson is all right, but they do say that Deacon Pusey is mighty fond of huggin' the women when he gets a chance.

—Cashier, mischievously—You must have had a dry night of it, Jack, you go to the water cooler so often. Jack, earnestly—Sir, you wrong me. As you do not live in a boarding house you can have no conception of the properties of soup made from corned-beef water.

—Mrs. Blinks—You did nobly at church to day. Instead of going to sleep during the sermon you listened attentively to every word. Mr. Blinks—Best sermon I ever heard. Glorious! The way he pitched into rich men like Winks and Minks and Jinks just did me good.

—She went prepared—Young husband in the theater to his wife—Excuse me, dear, I want to go out and see a man. Wife—Sit down, George. I've got baby's nursing bottle with me, with some liquor in it, and you can see a man right here without disturbing all those people.

—"And now, children," remarked the Sunday school superintendent, "what happened to those wicked people who reviled Noah and refused to hear his warning? Where did they find themselves when the flood came?" "In de soup!" exclaimed a class of newsboys on the back seat with one voice.

—"What is that dear, delightful, old-fashioned chair worth?" she inquired. "It is worth, madam," said the honest dealer, "just about $175: the price of it, however, is $9."

—Daughter, aged 33 (facetiously)—Papa, I found a dozen gray hairs in my head this morning and pulled them out. Don't you give me away, though. Father (sighing heavily)—Give you away, Emily? I've abandoned all hope of it.

Singers and public speakers chew Adams' Tutti Frutti Gum to preserve and strengthen the voice. Sold by all druggists and confectioners everywhere, 5 cents.

How to cure dyspepsia. Chew Adams' Tutti Frutti Gum before and after meals. Sold by all druggists and confectioners, 5 cents.

Of all the ills that flesh is heir to, avoid indigestion. Adams' Tutti Frutti Gum has no equal as an invigorator of digestion. Sold by all druggists and confectioners, 5 cents.