

I N D E X.

- Ings, ibid. Mosques and public bagnios, 790.
 Police, 791. Manufactures and commerce, ibid.
 Constitution and government, 792. Revenues, ibid.
ibid. Military strength, arms, and titles, ibid.
 History of Persia, ibid.
 Peru, the empire of, by whom founded, 869.
 State of, at the arrival of the Spaniards, ibid.
 Their cruelty and rapine, 870. The Peruvians fly to their mountains, 872. Its situation, extent, and boundaries, 999. Seas, bays, and har-bours, ibid. Rivers, ibid. Petrifying waters, ibid. Soil, ibid. Vegetable and animal productions, 1000. Mines, ibid. Manufactures, trade, and cities, 1001. Inhabitants, manners, and government, 1002
 Peter, Saint, the church of, in Rome, 632. Compared with St. Paul's in London, 633
 —, swift, an American animal, 997
 — the Great recovers the sovereignty of Russia
 out of the hands of the princess Sophia, 142.
 A general view of his plans of political reformation and improvement, ibid.
 — II. a minor, grandson of Peter I. succeeds
 the empress Catharine, 143
 — III. czar of Russia, his rash conduct and death, 144, 145
 Peterburg, the capital of Russia, 134
 Petit maitre, the character of a French, displayed, 425
 Pharos, island of, celebrated light-house there, 819
 Philadelphia, the capital city of Pennsylvania, 924 Philip, king of Macedon, how he acquired the sovereignty of Greece, 47
 — II. of Spain, his character, 605
 Philippine Islands, their number, produce, and inhabitants, 803
 Piast, origin and meaning of that term in Poland, 550
 Picts, remains of the, in Scotland, 176. Were not exterminated by the Scots, but incorporated with them, 186. Their wall on the North of England, 220
 Piedmont, its subdivisions and chief towns, 620
 Pimento-trees, their great beauty, 958
 Pindar, his celebrated poems, 41
 Pitt, Mr. his successful administration as British minister, 339. His resignation, and remarks on his conduct, 342. See Chatam, earl of.
 Pizarro, Francis, his expedition to Peru, 869.
 Amazing wealth collected there, 870. Puts the Inca Atabalipa to death, 871. Reduces Almagro, ibid. His death, 872 Planets, their several names and order, 1. Their orbits elliptical, 3. Table of their diameters, periods, &c. ibid.
 Planters, West Indian, their laborious, expensive and precarious employments, 965
 Platina, an eighth metal, 1001
 Pleas, common, court of 268
 Pleurisy, Swiss, remedy for that disorder, 566
 Plica Polonica, a disease frequent in Poland, 542, 543
 Plinlimmon, a mountain in Wales, 386
 Plot, gunpowder, 319
 Plymouth dock yard, 233
 Poitiers, battle of, between Edward, prince of Wales, and John, king of France, 304
 Poland, its extent and boundaries before the late partition, 537. Its grand divisions and chief cities, 538. Derivation of the name, ibid. Climate, soil, and produce, ibid. Extraordinary spring, ibid. Rivers and lakes, 539. Vegetable and animal productions, ibid. Population, character and manners of the inhabitants, ibid.
 Classes, 540. Their feudal tyranny, ibid. Dress of their country, 543. Religion, ibid. Arch-bishopsricks and bishopsricks, 544. Language and learning, ibid. Universities, ibid. Antiquities and curiosities of the country, ibid. Cities and public buildings, 545. Commerce and manufactures, 547. Constitution and government, ibid. New constitution fixed by the partitioning powers, 548. Revenues, 549. Military strength, 550. Orders of knighthood, ibid. History of the country, ibid. Dismemberment of the kingdom, 556. Reflections on this event, 557.
 The constitution of 1791 abandoned, 557, 558.
 The arbitrary and unjust conduct of Russia and Prussia, 558, 559. The Poles compelled to surrender their liberties, 560. Brave exploits of Kosciuskow, 561. Russians driven from Warsaw, with great slaughter, ibid.
 Polar circles, 12
 Pole, cardinal, employed by queen Mary to restore popery in England, 316
 Poles, celestial, how pointed out, 9
 Polytheism, the origin of, 61
 Pompeia, discovery of that ancient city, 632
 Pompey's pillar, near Grand Cairo, 818 Pondicherry, in the East Indies, surrendered to colonel Coote and admiral Stevens, 341
 Pont du Gard, at Nîmes, 429
 Poole's Hole, in Derbyshire, 222 Pope of Rome, territories subject to the, with their chief towns, 623. His ecclesiastical government, 627. Creed of pope Pius IV. ibid. List of indulgences, with their prices, 628, note. A view of the ecclesiastical state, 644. His temporal government, 644, 655
 Popish plot in England, account of, 327 Population of the earth, 28. The low state of, in Spain, accounted for, 585
 — of the British West Indies, 963
 Port Jackson. See Holland, New.
 Port-Royal, in Jamaica, repeated destructions of,
 972
 Porter, sir James, his character of the Ottoman government, 680
 Porto Bello taken by admiral Vernon, 335. Bay of, 996, 998
 — Rico, description of that island, 1011
 Portugal, its situation, extent, and boundaries,
 609. Its ancient names and divisions, 610.
 Natural history, ibid. The inhabitants, their manners and customs, 611. Religion, ibid.
 Archbishopsricks and bishopsricks, 612. Language and learning, ibid. Universities, 613.
 Curiosities, ibid. Chief cities, ibid. Commerce and manufactures, ibid. Constitution and government, 614. Revenues and taxes, ibid.
 Military and marine strength, 615. Royal titles and arms, ibid. Nobility and orders of knighthood, ibid. History of, 616
 Portuguese America, 1013
 Posidonia (or Posidium), the ancient city of, Potoi,