

the Church Society, unless excused by a letter from the Bishop ; one of which sermons shall be in aid of the said fund.

6. The Widows and Orphans of such Clergymen only, as shall be at the time of their decease, in the performance of missionary or parochial duty, under license from the Bishop of this Diocese, or superannuated after at least ten years service within this Diocese, and who shall have complied with the requirements of this By-law, shall be entitled to receive a pension from the Widows' and Orphans' fund in accordance with a general scale to be established by the Central Board, which Board are empowered to make a new scale whenever the altered circumstances of the said fund shall appear to require it. Provided that the families of Clergymen who may be at the time of their decease, stipendiaries of the Government, for other than clerical duties, or of Educational institutions, to the amount of £200 per annum, shall have no claim upon this fund—and that no Widow whose income shall amount to $600 shall be entitled to a pension for herself or her children.

7. The Widow and Orphans of any Clergyman who may have neglected to comply with the requirements of this By-law shall not be entitled to any benefits from the Fund. But such Clergyman during his life, may by a vote of the Central Board, be allowed to qualify himself by paying the arrears from the time of his entering the Diocese, and by producing a certificate from a physician that he is in good health. As far as respects the Clergy now in the Diocese, the arrears to be computed only from the time of the passing of this By-law.

8. Those receiving benefits shall be required to furnish certificates as directed by the Central Board.

9. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to ascertain at the beginning of each year whether the Clergy have paid their contributions in accordance with this By-law and have complied with its other requirements, and to report thereon to the Central Board.
