

CONTENTS.

v

16. Catharina, empress of Russia, - - -	100
17. The same subject continued, - - -	101
18. Virtue and happiness equally attainable by the rich and the poor, - - -	103
19. The character of Christ, - - -	104

PART II.

PIECES IN POETRY.

CHAPTER I.

Select Sentences and Paragraphs, - - -	107
--	-----

CHAPTER II.

Narrative Pieces.

SECT. 1. The looking glass ; or, in humor corrected, - - -	111
2. The butterfly and the snail, - - -	112
3. The brother and sister, - - -	113
4. The lamb and the pig, - - -	114
5. The bee and the ant, - - -	115
6. The doves, - - -	116
7. The goldfinches, - - -	118
8. The pet lamb, - - -	119
9. The farmer, the spaniel, and the cat, - - -	120
10. The wheat and the weeds, - - -	122
11. Economy the source of charity, - - -	123

CHAPTER III.

Didactic Pieces.

SECT. 1. To some children listening to a lark, - - -	125
2. The advantages of early religion, - - -	ib.
3. Peace and love recommended, - - -	126
4. To a young woman with a watch, - - -	ib.
5. Verses accompanying a nosegay, - - -	127
6. Duties of the morning, - - -	128
7. The mind to be cultivated, - - -	129
8. Dependence on Providence, - - -	130

CHAPTER IV.

Descriptive Pieces.

SECT. 1. The pleasure of retirement, - - -	131
2. The sluggard, - - -	132
3. Creation and Providence, - - -	133