

N. B.—Y^e younge menne must not exchange glances across y^e house wythe y^e younge maydens.

N. B.—Y^e younge menne who desire to walke home wythe y^e young wimmen will please ask them before y^e syngyngē begynns, that there be no confusion while y^e syngyngē is going on.

N. B.—If ye should like to heare some of y^e songs two times ye maye clappe ye hands.

N. B.—Y^e syngers desire that no poesies be flunge upon y^e stage as it may cause rivalrie amonge y^e wimmen syngers.

N. B.—Y^e musicke people in the roome must not censture the great plainness of some of y^e menne and wimmen singers, as they made not themselves and are not blameable.

N. B.—When y^e songe be sunge for that y^e good Queenē maye be blessed with muche prosperitie, it is notice that ye may go home.

N. B.—Coaches and Sedan Chairs can be brought for y^e wimmen folkes at ten of y^e clocke.