

Gospel, I would yet stand here for hours and pray you in Christ's stead, "Be ye reconciled to God." But I must dismiss you to your homes. Read there the story of the cross, and if you find yourselves still relentless, read it again, and again, and may the Holy Spirit, for it is his work, give you "REPENTANCE UNTO LIFE!"

THE END.