

gentleman and
d athletic in-
turn in speech,
fond of his
ly, cultivated
d judgment,
all for a high
t his convic-
adin and the
entleness and

ufferings, are rship at the
hood, he de-
y bade adieu
an oppressed
ry, must be
of our inde-
ibility, ener-
fidence and
his soldiery,
dination, re-
rbulent free-
"servant of
heroic end
reer.